2005 OKLAHOMA FOOTBALL

GAME DAY IN NORMAN

Welcome from Head Coach Bob Stoops

Many times I have been asked what I like most about being the head football coach at Oklahoma. Obviously it's impossible to settle on just one thing, but I can tell you something that always comes quickly to mind ... the hunger this place has for championships.

Looking back over OU's history, you can see where some might be tempted to sit back and be satisfied. There have been seven national championships, 39 conference titles, 23 bowl victories and 141 All-Americans.

Despite that, every time a game or honor is won here, the next thought, for our team and fans alike, turns to winning the next one. I really like that about Oklahoma ... there is always something else out there for us to attain.

That attitude is reflected in what has happened here over the last five years. During that time, we've won more games (60) and had more national award winners (16) than any other program in college football. We've spent 22 weeks at No. 1 and been listed in 72 consecutive polls.

There is no better feeling for a coach than to see his players pleased with their college experience. In both team and individual achievement, we see a lot of that here, and it drives our program.

Another year awaits and another championship opportunity is ahead of us. At Oklahoma, we wouldn't have it any other way.

Bob Stoops

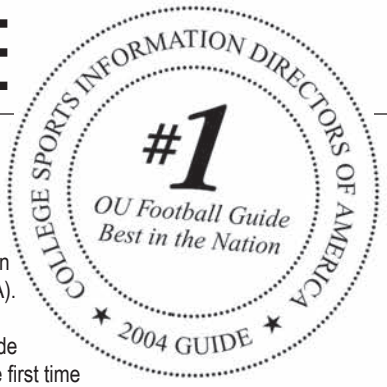
PRINTING
The 2005 Oklahoma Football Guide was printed by OU Printing Services of Norman, Okla., at no cost to the taxpayers of the state of Oklahoma. Special thanks to Bob Goodwin and Matt Cooper. Front cover by Superior Graphics of Addison, Texas. The guide was designed and produced by the OU Athletics Department using Adobe InDesign and Adobe Photoshop.

The University of Oklahoma is an equal opportunity employer (2005).

BEST IN THE NATION
The 2004 OU football guide and post-season guide were judged No. 1 in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).



The 2004 regular-season guide finished in the top spot for the first time since 1995, while the post-season guide, which competed in a contest against publications produced for all post-season competitions in all sports, won for a fourth consecutive year (2001-04).

Oklahoma finished ahead of second-place Tennessee and third-place Notre Dame in the regular season guide competition. In post-season competition, the 2005 Oklahoma football bowl guide topped Virginia Tech football and Texas football which finished second and third, respectively.

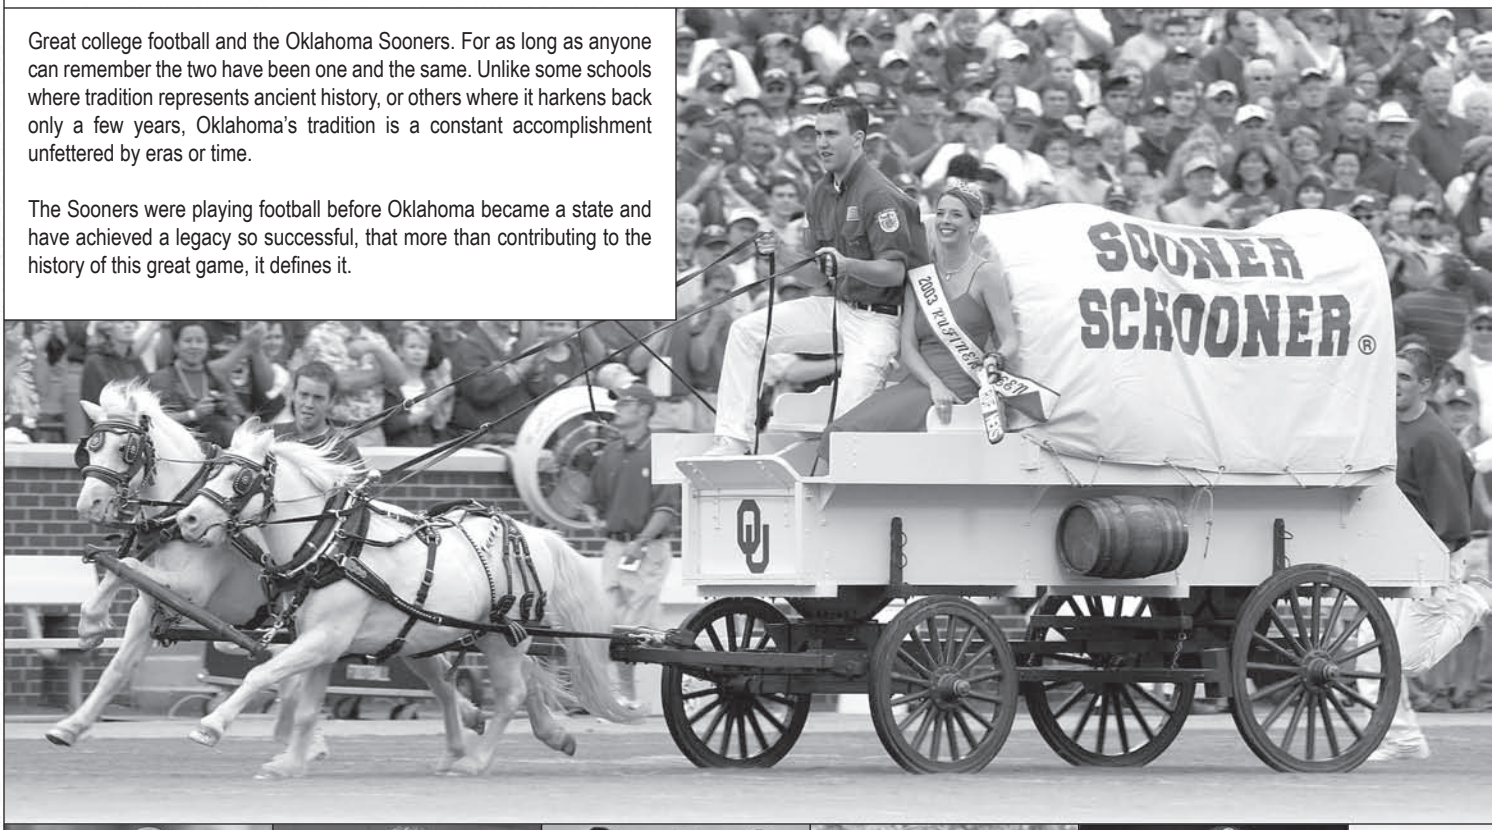
SOONER FOOTBALL TRADITION

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember the two have been one and the same. Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful, that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.



Most Successful Program of the Modern Era

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football. Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the winningest program in the nation with more victories (505) than any other school and the best winning percentage (76 percent). Victories since 1946:

Greatest Players in College Football

Some of the greatest players in college football history have worn the Crimson and Cream. The University of Oklahoma has averaged more than one All-American per year since it began playing football in 1895. To date, OU players have been bestowed the prestigious honor 141 times.

Four Sooners have been awarded the Heisman Trophy including quarterback Jason White in 2003, running back Billy Sims in 1978 and running back Steve Owens in 1969. Running back Billy Vessels was OU's first Heisman winner in 1952.

What have you done for me lately? In Oklahoma's case, plenty. This is one of the hottest programs in all of sports.

Oklahoma has played in three national championship games over the last five seasons, owns three Big 12 championships during that time and turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name all of them.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman lately. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

For the Record ... 169 Times

Anyone with their sights set on attacking the Oklahoma record book had better bring the house. Seven national championships and 141 All-Americans have set most of the numbers somewhere in the stratosphere. That's what makes Bob Stoops' six-year run and the recent Sooner success all the more impressive.

Since 1999 (the year of Stoops' arrival), Oklahoma has set or tied 123 individual school records and 46 team marks for a total of 169 record book rewrites. That kind of production tends to draw a crowd, which would explain how during that same period the Sooners have also broken their single-game attendance record eight times and their season attendance standard twice.

Stoops Leads Oklahoma to Seventh Title

In a season so richly laced with great moments, the one for the ages came in the national title game, a 13-2 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl. It has been called by some the greatest defensive effort ever in a championship game.

The national title season came just two years into Bob Stoops' tenure and just two years removed from a sub-.500 season. Along the way, the Sooners had thrilling wins over Nebraska, Texas, Texas A&M and Kansas State (twice), with only one of those contests played at Owen Field in Norman.

Headliners included QB Josh Heupel, who finished second in the Heisman voting, and big-play linebacker Torrance Marshall. The mark at the end of the season was an unblemished 13-0.

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown. That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around here.

The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage. Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners under Bob Stoops earned the conference's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap an undefeated, 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1985, 1975 and 1974, and Bud Wilkinson in 1956, 1955 and 1950. Nebraska is second with five championships and Texas has three. Colorado and Texas A&M each have claimed one title.

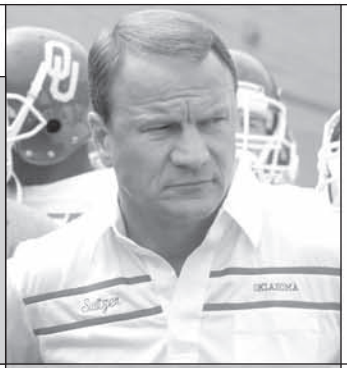
BARRY SWITZER



Head Coach Barry Switzer

Barry Switzer led his Oklahoma teams to national championships in 1985, 1974 and 1975. He also won 12 Big Eight Conference championships and had eight bowl victories in 13 appearances. Switzer directed the Sooners on a 28-game win streak from 1973 (his first season as head coach) to 1975. When Oklahoma won the national championship in 1975, it marked the first time in history a team had won back-to-back titles more than once. In 1970, as an assistant, he convinced head coach Chuck Fairbanks to make the most significant and gutsy move in OU's football history, a switch to the wishbone offense.

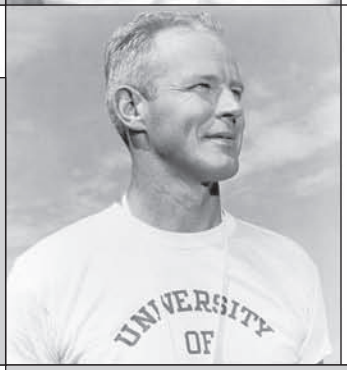
BUD WILKINSON



Head Coach Bud Wilkinson

Oklahoma's 13th football coach produced teams that were 6-2 in postseason play, won the national championship in 1950, 1955 and 1956 and did not lose an astounding 74 straight conference games from 1946-1959 (72 wins, 2 ties). His teams still hold the modern record for wins by a Division I-A school with 47 straight victories from 1953-1957. After the 1947 season, the Sooners won 12 straight conference championships. In 17 seasons at Oklahoma, Wilkinson fostered racial integration and graduated players at an 87.2 percentage rate while becoming the eighth-winningest coach in Division I-A history.

Three Big 12 Crowns in Five Years

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 38. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons.

That same pace has carried through the Bob Stoops era with three league crowns in six years. That feat merits considerable respect. Under the Big 12 format, teams must first win a divisional crown over five opponents before advancing to meet the other divisional winner at a neutral site.

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma.

TEXAS -1996

Three Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma. The Sooners defeated Colorado, 42-3, at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City for the 2004 crown. OU won the 2002 Big 12 title over Colorado, 29-7, at Reliant Stadium in Houston and captured its first Big 12 championship in 2000 with a 27-24 victory against Kansas State at Arrowhead Stadium.

Big 12 Champions

OU Beats Kansas State for Title, 27-24

A surprise option pitch on fourth-and-inches turned into a 22-yard gain by Quentin Griffin and set up Josh Heupel's 17-yard go-ahead touchdown pass in No. 1 Oklahoma's 27-24 victory over Kansas State.

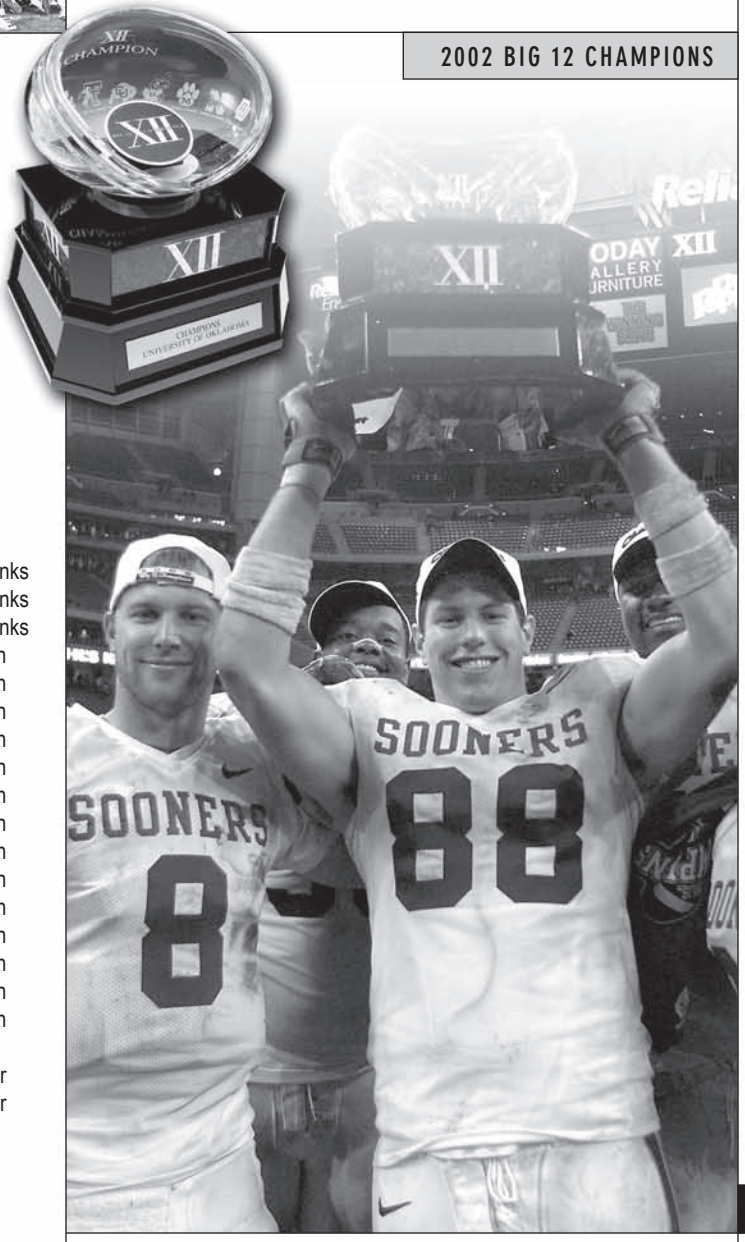
2002 BIG 12 CHAMPIONS



141 ALL-AMERICANS

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built on some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

Sixteen Winners in Last Five Seasons

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners. The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

SOONERS IN THE NFL

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than Oklahoma. Ten Sooners were tabbed in the 2005 NFL Draft alone, including two in the first round and five in the first two.

OU plays pro schemes, has two coaches who had lengthy NFL careers and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the off-season to continue their training.

Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at Oklahoma and leave here equipped to play football beyond their college days.

NATIONAL ATTENTION AT OU

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with Sooner players and coaches and routinely spend time in Norman.

And when they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2004, all 13 Oklahoma games appeared on live television, including seven that were carried nationally or regionally on ABC. The Sooners are at the very center of college football and the entire world is watching.

37	The Sooners have played in front of 37 consecutive sellout crowds at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman, including every home game of Coach Bob Stoops' tenure.
92	Over the past four seasons, 92 percent of Oklahoma's games were televised live (50 of 54 games). In fact, 31 consecutive OU games have been on TV.

23 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Thirty-eight bowl appearances and 23 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America. The Sooners have become synonymous with post-season play at the highest level.

At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last few years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner. Three times in the last five seasons the Sooners have played for the national championship, four times they have been in BCS bowls and in all five seasons they played in January games.

Oklahoma enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its fan following. Some 30,000 ventured to the Rose, Sugar and Orange Bowls over the last three seasons. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

Storied Rivalry at Cotton Bowl in October

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color – half crimson, half burnt orange – in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

Sooners Power to Five Straight Over Horns

Oklahoma has won the last five Red River Shootouts ... all by double digits. The combined score of those games was 189-54. Last season, OU handed Texas its first shutout in 24 years, 12-0.

In 2003, the Sooners set series records for points and most lopsided victory in a 65-13 rout. In the 2002 game, Oklahoma rallied with 24 unanswered points to post a 35-24 win. 2001 saw "The Play" as Sooner Roy Williams leaped over the Texas offensive line and batted a Chris Sims' pass to set up an interception by Teddy Lehman and the decisive score, 14-3.

In the 2000 game, the Sooners scored on its first five drives to punish the Longhorns, 63-14, en route to Oklahoma's seventh national title.

Sooners Set to Perform in Norman

To understand a football Saturday in Norman, one must first understand what the sport means to Oklahomans. The Sooners were competing on the gridiron before this grand land moved from territorial status to statehood. Few college programs are more engrained in their surroundings than the one at OU.

Game day at Oklahoma is about more than 80,000 fans witnessing one of the most historic and vibrant programs in college football at one of the game's truly great cathedrals.

It is about pride for a great university. Indeed, it is about pride for an entire state. Game day here represents football and a whole lot more.

1	Oklahoma ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 Conference in average attendance with 84,532 per home game last season. 2004 marked the highest average in school history.
4	Although OU just completed a stadium expansion, the facility operated at 104 percent capacity in 2004 -- fourth best in the nation. That means no empty seats for games in Norman.
9	The official capacity of Memorial Stadium is 82,112 but OU averaged 84,532 fans per game last season. That put the Sooners at No. 9 in the nation in average attendance.
32	Since the stadium's opening in 1923, the Sooners have 32 undefeated seasons at home, including five perfect home seasons under head coach Bob Stoops.
37	The Sooners have played in front of 37 consecutive sellout crowds in Norman including every home game of Bob Stoops' tenure.
79	Oklahoma has won more than 79 percent of its home games at Memorial Stadium. Since the facility's opening in 1923, the Sooners are 320-79-14 at home.

OU FOOTBALL FACILITIES

Preparation Meets Opportunity

It would be hard to imagine a football program doing more over the last five years to enhance its facilities than OU. The $70 million expansion and enhancement of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is perhaps the most noticeable upgrade, but it is simply the lead project in a plan that has impacted every facet of Sooner football.

A new locker room, a new indoor training facility, a new weight training facility, roughly 8,000 new seats and 60 new stadium suites are testaments to OU's dedication to providing the best for its student-athletes. Preparation routinely meets opportunity at Oklahoma. It does so largely because the Sooners have what they need to succeed.

4	Four regulation-size practice fields are available to the Sooners right outside their locker room: Owen Field, two grass fields plus an artificial turf field with sand pit.
65	The ceiling inside the Everest Training Facility hangs a full 65 feet above the SafePlay Synthetic Turf surface. This allows for all kicking and throwing drills during practice.
70	Oklahoma recently completed a $70 million stadium expansion and enhancement project that added 8,000 seats. In 2004, OU led the Big 12 in average attendance at 84,532.
74	On those rare days that the weather forces Oklahoma to practice indoors, the Sooners can move to the 74,000-square-foot Everest Indoor Training Facility.

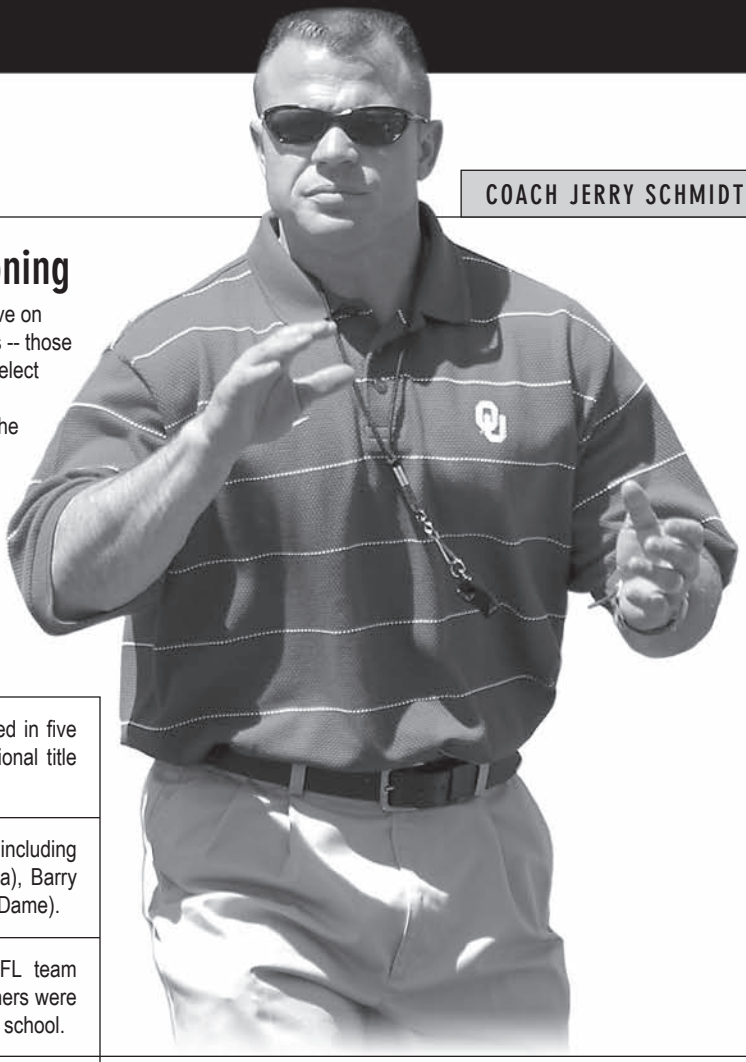
SOONER POWER



COACH JERRY SCHMIDT

Championship Strength & Conditioning

The best testimony for the impact Jerry Schmidt and his staff have on Oklahoma football players comes from former Oklahoma players -- those in professional football. It's not uncommon for members of that select fraternity to return to Norman for part of their off-season training regimen. During their time in the Sooner program, they learned the quality of the strength and conditioning program.

Schmidt has been involved with three national football championships at three different schools. His success is no coincidence. Now in his seventh year at OU, he is recognized nationally as one of the best in the business, and the Athletics Department has surrounded him with facilities that give Sooner student-athletes the best opportunity to succeed.

3	Jerry Schmidt has coached with teams that played in five national championship games. He has three national title rings from Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Florida.
4	Schmidt has worked with four Heisman winners, including Jason White (Oklahoma), Danny Wuerffel (Florida), Barry Sanders (Oklahoma State) and Tim Brown (Notre Dame).
10	Coaches, scouts and personnel from every NFL team were on hand for the 2005 OU Pro Day. Ten Sooners were selected in the subsequent draft -- the most of any school.
22	Schmidt has coached 22 NFL first-round picks including Oklahoma's Jammal Brown, Mark Clayton, Tommie Harris, Andre Woolfolk and Roy Williams.
31	No. 31 for the Dallas Cowboys and former Sooner standout, Roy Williams, donated $100,000 to establish a new weight room in Oklahoma's Everest Training Facility.

The Best in the Business

“Jerry Schmidt is Oklahoma’s Director of Sports Enhancement. He worked under Tom Osborne at Nebraska, Lou Holtz at Notre Dame and Steve Spurrier at Florida, where he became buddies with the Gators’ then-defensive coordinator, Bob Stoops.

“Schmidt made sure that Stoops’ players were big and fast. Insiders will tell you he’s probably the best in the business. The Sooners have played for three national titles since 2000...

“Almost to a man, the Sooners looked like they were cut out of marble. There were no guts hanging over belts. There were no skinny arms or pear-shaped frames. They were as soft as petrified trees. These guys looked like well-conditioned athletes.”

- Ted Miller, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, April 23, 2005

MARK CLAYTON

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

Two OU Heisman Finalists in 2004

Pass oriented? You could make that case. Numerous records for both passing and receiving have fallen over the last two years. Run oriented? Maybe. After all, the single season rushing mark was set in 2004. Well which is it, passing or running? At Oklahoma, the answer is both.

After another blockbuster season in '04, OU had two offensive players, a running back and a quarterback, among the five Heisman finalists. It also produced the Outland Trophy winner and saw three wide receivers selected in the 2005 NFL Draft.

The Sooner offense is balanced, although its West Coast and pro influences are unmistakable. It is common to see the ball in the hands of 10-15 players during the course of a game. Many stay involved to the detriment of none.

Under Coach Stoops, the Oklahoma offense has produced:

QB	Two All-Americans, three Heisman finalists, one Heisman Trophy winner and OU's record holders in game, season and career passing yards.
RB	One Heisman finalist, one All-American, two 1,000-yard rushers and Oklahoma's single season rushing yards record holder.
WR	Two All-Americans, one Biletnikoff Award finalist and OU's record holders in game, season and career receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions (tied).
TE	One Mackey Award and Oklahoma's record holder in touchdown receptions in a game (tied).
OL	Three All-Americans, one Outland Trophy winner and two Rimington Award finalists.

DOMINATING DEFENSE

Attacking Defense Built on Speed

Oklahoma's defense suffers from a bit of an identity crisis, but nobody in Norman is about to say anything. With a takeaway in 70 of Bob Stoops' 79 games and 14 interception or fumble returns for touchdowns during this coach's tenure, the defense has a reputation of, well, being a little offensive in its approach.

The Sooners' attack-style defense, long appreciated for its speed and aggressive attitude, is perhaps best known for its consistency. OU has ranked among the top 13 teams in the nation in total defense for five consecutive years.

Outstanding players have dominated the landscape. Twice in the last four years, a Sooner has been named the best defensive player in the nation.

SOONER SPECIAL TEAMS

A strong case can be made that no program has played better on its special teams in recent years than Oklahoma. Time and again the Sooners have blown games wide open with electric and innovative special teams play.

Bob Stoops' commitment to special teams performance is evidenced by the number of first-team players who participate on those units. The wisdom of that move, and the program's overall devotion to special teams play, is found in the staggering numbers that relate to every possible facet of the kicking and return games.

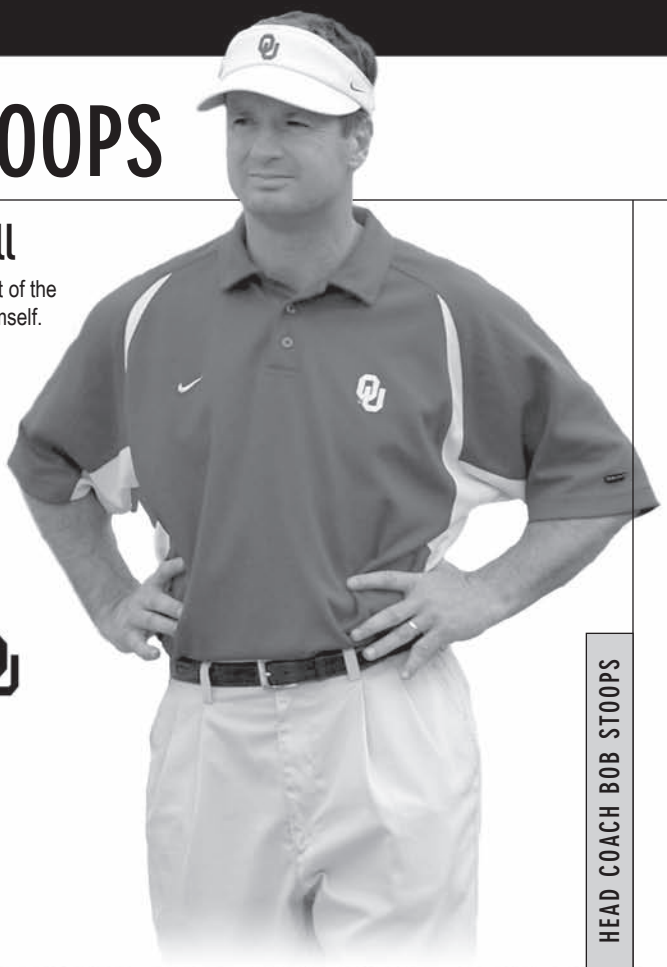
HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS



Winningest Active Coach in College Football

The kind of admiration Bob Stoops has achieved is the best kind. It's a byproduct of the success his program has enjoyed and the manner in which he has conducted himself. Football observers from coast to coast have witnessed the renaissance authored by Stoops at Oklahoma and often proclaim the Sooner coach among the very best in the land.

When Stoops arrived in Norman, OU had fallen on brief and uncharacteristic hard times. He has returned Oklahoma football to its rightful place among the elite, and there is no denying the person most responsible for the turnaround. The pride has been restored and a nation has noticed.

Winningest active coaches with at least five years as head coach:

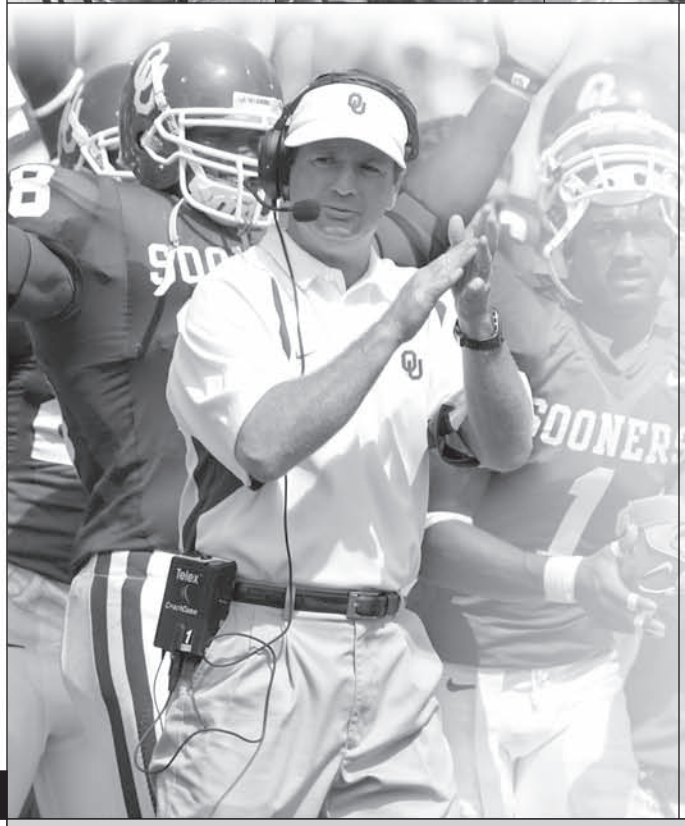
HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS



Quotes on Coach Stoops

"In a sport in which icons are dropping annually from sight, and phenoms are forever heading to the NFL, Stoops is the closest thing to a budding legend in the NCAA."

- John Romano, St. Petersburg Times

"He has brought us back to the pinnacle of college football. Bob is creating his own legend. He inherited a program with great tradition, and he's added to it."

- Barry Switzer, Former OU Head Coach

"Only a handful of them meet the old expectation of coach-as-teacher and model for manly behavior anymore. Bob Stoops comes to mind."

- Sally Jenkins, Washington Post

"This is a (Sooner) team that's going to contend for the National Championship as long as Bob Stoops wants to."

- John Saunders, ABC Sports

"Stoops' philosophy is at the same time unbending and liberating. He presides over players who are competitive and aggressive, but also respectful and talkative."

- David Barron, Houston Chronicle

OU COACHING STAFF

167 Cumulative Years of Experience

In Bob Stoops' six seasons in Norman, three of his assistant coaches have gone on to become head coaches at other I-A programs. It's not hard to gauge the quality of the Sooner staff or Stoops' ability to hire good people.

The beneficiaries are Oklahoma's players. In record numbers they have been honored and drafted into the professional ranks. And that has been true regardless of what position they play.

Identifying and recruiting talent, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be in football or in the business world, nobody does it better than Oklahoma.

The Sooner Nation

Talk to Oklahoma's players about the school they represent and the reasons for their contentment vary from the camaraderie of the team to academic offerings to the coaching staff. By addressing every element of life, OU has created an environment that works well for a wide range of students.

It all contributes to an atmosphere that fosters a cohesive and happy team that knows how to win football games. Along the way, Oklahoma's players are exposed to a career of great opportunities whether it be playing for a national championship, getting a degree or just enjoying the college experience.

Why Oklahoma?

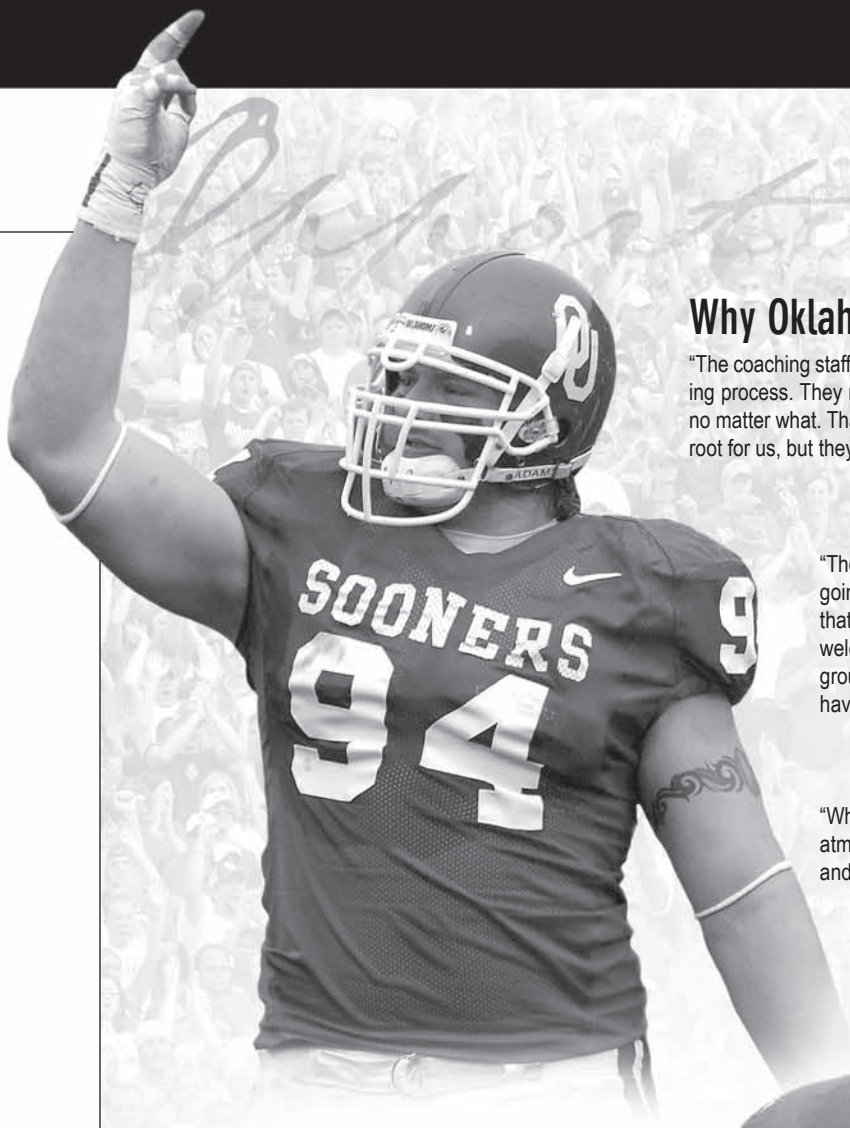
OU football players and their families share their reasons for choosing to come to the University of Oklahoma and play for the Sooners:

"I didn't know where I was going until I heard Coach Stoops' voice on the other end of the phone. I knew right then and there that I wanted to go to Oklahoma. There was always a special place in my heart for OU.

"Growing up only 20 minutes away, I was aware of the winning tradition, national championships and bowl success that they had and all of the great players they produced."

- J.D. Runnels, senior fullback, Midwest City, Okla.

Mentorship



Why Oklahoma?

"The coaching staff impressed me more than any other we dealt with during the recruiting process. They really meant what they said. The best players really do get to play, no matter what. That's how you win championships. And the fans here are great. They root for us, but they care about us as people, too."

- Dusty Dvoracek, senior defensive tackle, Lake Dallas, Texas

"The camaraderie in the program is great. For the people who are going to be far from home for an extended period of time, I would think that would be very important. Everybody meshes so well there. You're welcomed with open arms and then you're part of a very close-knit group. I'm not sure I realized that fact about us as soon as I should have, but it's a big thing to me now."

- Dan Cody, Baltimore Ravens

"When I took my recruiting trip to Norman, I could sense the incredible atmosphere that surrounded the program. The coaches, the players and the fans are special."

- Donte Nicholson, Tampa Bay Buccaneers

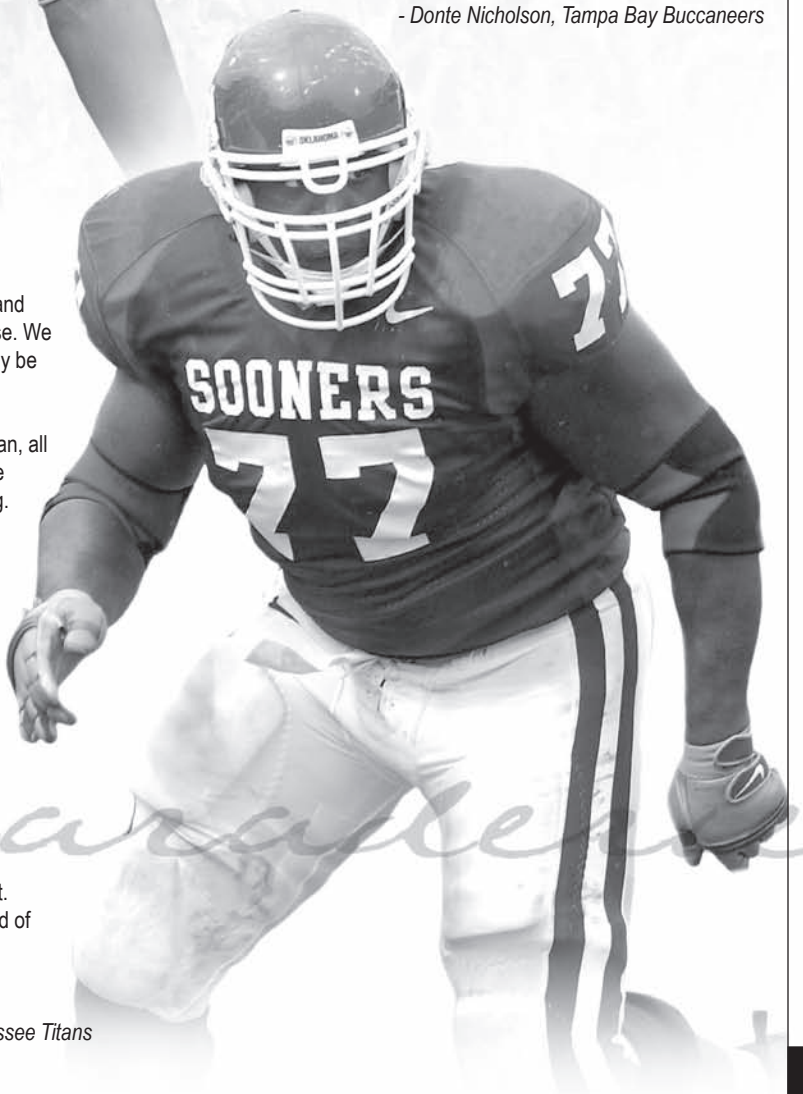
Why Oklahoma?

"When I came to visit Oklahoma, my hosts were Vince Carter and Tommie Harris. I just had so much fun just chilling at their house. We just really clicked. I started thinking about the guys I could really be around and be friends with for a long time.

"It was something that I didn't feel at those other schools. I mean, all we did was sit there and play video games but it was great. We talked about everything and just had a good time doing nothing.

"I found some really genuine people here that I didn't find at those other schools. They were out to make something of themselves the right way."

- Davin Joseph, senior offensive tackle, Hallandale, Fla.



Camaraderie

"He felt like it was a family to him and we both liked that aspect. Of course, I was more focused on the academics and what kind of education he would receive and we thought the University of Oklahoma was the best place for that as well."

- Barnette Jones, mother of Brandon Jones, Tennessee Titans

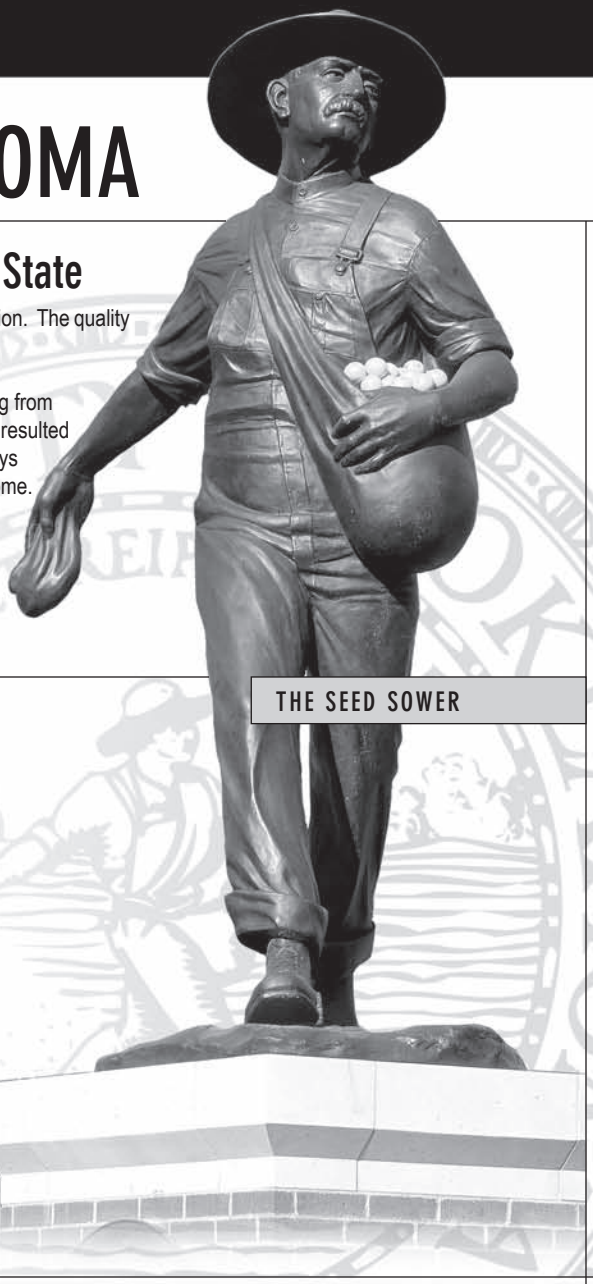
UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Flagship Educational Institution of the Sooner State

The University of Oklahoma is experiencing a golden era in the history of a great institution. The quality of new student applications is soaring and donor confidence is at an all-time high.

Over the last seven years, OU's donor base has expanded at a staggering rate, moving from 17,000 to 73,000. President David L. Boren has spurred significant changes that have resulted in a learning environment of the highest order. As a result, the state of Oklahoma enjoys resources that impact everything from medical science to the arts for many years to come.

The University of Oklahoma has long embraced the great tradition of Sooner athletics. With competitive facilities all located on the main campus, including several near the heart of the university, student-athletes and their classmates mingle comfortably in an environment that fosters an attitude of excellence, regardless of the endeavor.



THE SEED SOWER

1	The University of Oklahoma ranks number one among comprehensive public universities in the per capita number of freshman National Merit Scholars.
5	The University of Oklahoma is in the top five in the nation among all comprehensive public universities in the graduation of Rhodes Scholars.
10	OU is the only public university in Oklahoma to be included in the Fiske Guide to Colleges, which lists the top 10 percent of all universities in the United States.
19	OU has 19 colleges offering 147 majors at the baccalaureate level and 152 majors at the master's level. The university's annual operating budget is more than $1 billion.
31	OU boasts an enrollment of more than 31,000 students and more than 2,000 full-time faculty. The Norman campus maintains a student to instructor ratio of 20:1.

What do you know about OU?

• OU is one of a small number of Division I-A universities in the nation to receive the CHAMPS award for preparing student-athletes for life. The award is based on academic excellence, athletic excellence, personal development, community service and career development.

• OU has won awards for new initiatives to create a sense of family and community on campus. OU is one of the very few public universities to twice receive the Templeton Foundation Award as a "Character Building College" for stressing the value of community.

• OU continues to break private fund-raising records, with more than $1 billion in gifts and pledges over the past decade, including the 1995-2000 Reach for Excellence Campaign, which raised $514 million and closed as the fourth-largest public university fund-raising campaign in U.S. history.

• OU ranks first among the Big 12 universities in the growth of federal research funding. OU's research and training programs have grown twice as fast as the national average over a 10-year period, according to a survey by the National Science Foundation.

• A diverse student community is a priority at Oklahoma. OU ranks number one in the Big 12 in Native American enrollment and continues to be one of the leaders in enrollment of Latin American, Asian American and African American students.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

The recent Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement included remodeled office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project was the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

Indeed, there is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in a graduation rate that exceeds that of the general student body. In addition to its academic work, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

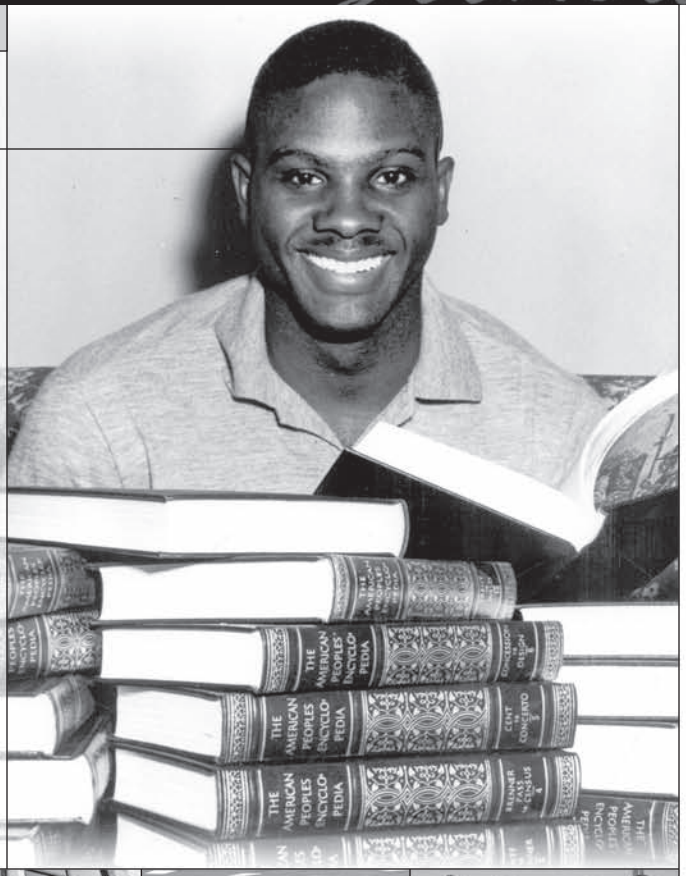
PRENTICE GAUTT



Oklahoma Remembers Prentice Gautt

Prentice Gautt ushered in a new era for Oklahoma football when he landed a spot on the 1956 team. Former Sooner head coach Bud Wilkinson was pressured against giving Gautt a scholarship. A group of black doctors and pharmacists gave money for Gautt to attend the school. Within a year, Gautt was given a scholarship and the donated amounts were given to another black student.

Gautt, considered Oklahoma's best player in 1958, was a two-time All-Big Eight player and 1959 Orange Bowl MVP. During his senior year, Gautt was named to the academic All-America team and eventually earned master's and doctorate degrees in psychology.

The academic center for student-athletes at the University of Oklahoma was named in Gautt's honor in 1999. A special assistant to the commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, Gautt passed away on March 17, 2005.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless numbers of African-Americans and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics," said University of Oklahoma president David Boren.

SOONERS IN THE COMMUNITY

MARCUS WALKER

PAUL THOMPSON

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes … Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

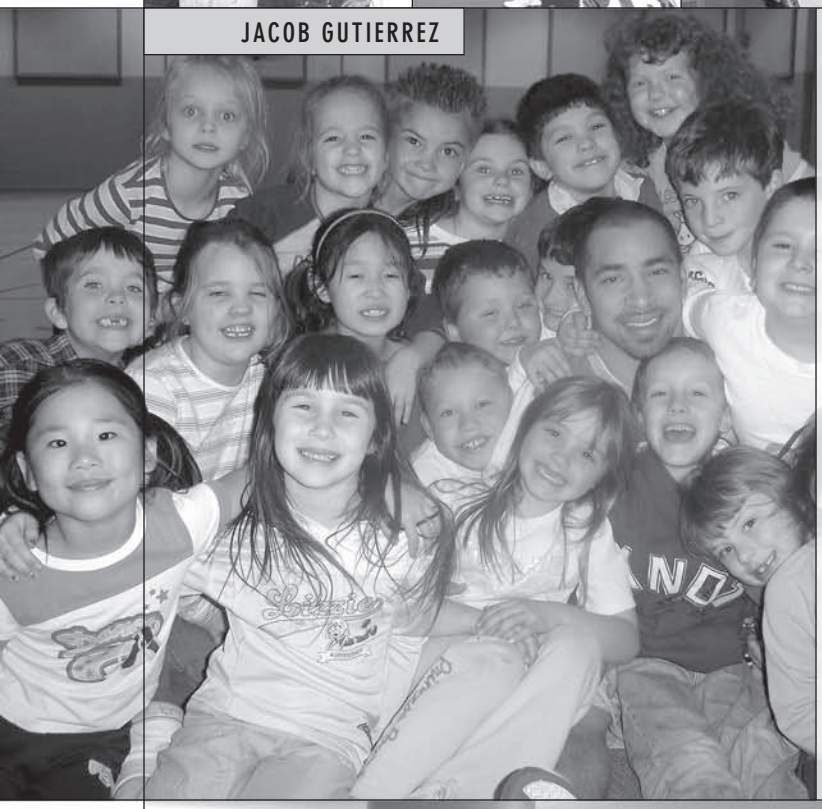
Individually, football players serve with numerous groups. Two of their largest projects include a free football clinic for underprivileged youths and the distribution of food that is donated by Oklahoma fans at a designated home game.

Each year on the morning of the spring football game, the Sooners provide a complimentary football clinic for a select group of youth from throughout the central Oklahoma region.

The team also plays an active role in a food drive that takes place near the Thanksgiving holiday. OU fans donate food at a game and players help in the distribution the following Monday.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

JACOB GUTIERREZ



Gutierrez Earns Youth Citizen Award

Each year the United Way of Norman and the Junior League of Norman honor volunteers in five categories for their unselfish service to the community. Among those five categories is the Youth Citizen Award, which goes to an individual who is 25 years of age or less.

The 2004-05 recipient was Sooner running back Jacob Gutierrez.

Gutierrez volunteers at Madison Elementary School in Norman where he works with children in reading and music. He exceeded expectations in both time commitment and scope and reached out to mentor children with little or no male influence in their lives.

"He's here with the kids every week and goes above and beyond," said Madison teacher Regina Bell, who nominated Gutierrez for the honor. "Jacob does it from the heart. He doesn't do it to look good in the coaches' eyes. He does it because it's the right thing to do."

"Football gives you a platform, puts you in a position to help people," Gutierrez said. "A lot of young people look up to you, and it's always great if you can make a difference in their lives. I hope I have."

The United Way says he has.

NORMAN & OKLAHOMA CITY

GAMEDAY IN NORMAN

Norman - Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

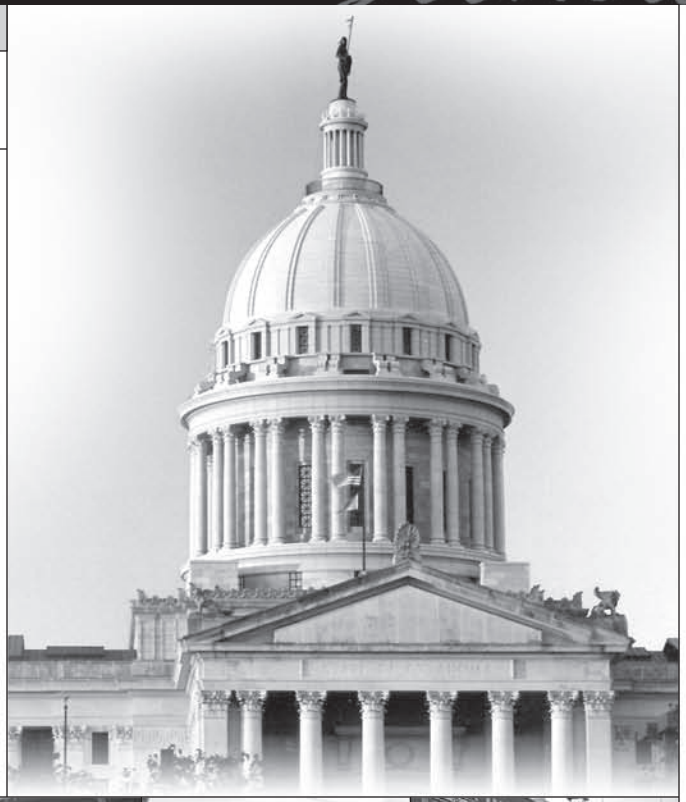
Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit." Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

1	The Oklahoma City metropolitan area has a population of more than one million people. OKC is the largest city in the state and the 29th largest city in the nation.
18	Located just 18 miles north of Norman, the state's capital, Oklahoma City, offers all the trappings of a large metropolitan area within an easy drive.
70°	The average annual temperature in Norman. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters. Four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.
100	Norman is the third largest city in the state with nearly 100,000 residents. Despite its growth, the city nurtures and maintains its small, college town atmosphere.
175	Norman boasts more than 175 restaurants including barbecue, Mexican, Oriental, Greek, Indian, Italian, Thai, seafood, health and natural foods.
196	Due to its central location, Norman is a quick 196-mile drive from Dallas. Roughly 20 percent of OU's students are from Texas and choose to come north.

THE STATE CAPITAL



Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state. Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home to three minor league teams and the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series. The Oklahoma RedHawks are the Triple-A baseball affiliate of the Texas Rangers. The team plays in the SBC Bricktown Ballpark, considered one of the finest venues in all of minor league sports.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is Oklahoma City's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Prominence on a National Stage

Just 10 years into its existence, the Big 12 has vaulted to the top of intercollegiate athletics. A regular player in the determination of national championships, the conference offers its more than 4,000 student-athletes that rare opportunity to compete in the national spotlight every season.

Today's student-athlete desires a conference that pushes each participant to excel, while opening the door for prominence on the national stage.

Big 12 schools have combined for more than 800 NCAA crowns and have nearly 170 national team titles. No conference provides a more optimal environment for success than the Big 12.

BAYLOR
Oklahoma has won all 14 of its meetings with the Bears.

COLORADO
Sooners' last two Big 12 titles have come against Buffs.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE XII

College Football at the Highest Level

The Big 12 led the nation with 28 non-conference wins in 2004. Its total of eight losses in non-conference tilts was the lowest in I-A, while the league's .624 win percentage was the second highest in the country.

The Big 12 led all conferences with eight teams ranked in the top 25 of Division I-A schedule strength, twice the number of the second-highest conference. Schedule strength was based on the cumulative winning percentage of each team's opponents.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with four appearances in the BCS National Championship game and is the only conference to place two teams in the Top 6 of both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls each of the last four seasons.

With a 4-3 record in the post-season, the Big 12 Conference registered the most wins and was one of three conferences to post a winning record in bowl games last season.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media Credentials

Requests for media credentials to University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director for a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers. Only photographers on assignment for accredited publications (not websites) will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials
Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com by August 10. Only those media who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will automatically be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials
Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials
Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Each school handles the requests from its regular pool of media. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Texas will serve as the host school this year. Any media not based in the state of Oklahoma should contact the Texas Athletics Media Relations Office with credentials requests. OU-Texas credentials will be distributed to local media at the Tuesday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pick-up location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA). No credentials will be mailed, but outlets willing to provide an overnight account number no later than Wednesday of game week may receive them in that manner.

Credential Pick-up
Credentials may be picked up from the media relations office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day (see map on page 57). Photo identification is required for pick up. Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pick ups are allowed.

Credential Requests

Credential requests for the 2005 Oklahoma football season will only be accepted online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Please visit the website for complete instructions on submitting the online application form.

Pertinent media information including forms, instructions and special media releases are available online 24 hours a day. Approved media outlets also have access to OU's high-resolution image library for player and coaching staff action photos and mugs.

Parking Passes
Parking passes are in a limited supply and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued. Most media parking is located in the Asp Ave. Parking Facility located immediately west of the stadium, one half block north of the intersection at Lindsey and Asp (see map on page 57).

Daily Media Availability

Monday: Bob Stoops participates on the Big 12's Weekly Teleconference at 10:10 a.m. All coaches and players* are available following practice. Practice is open to photographers for the first 15 minutes.

Tuesday: Media Luncheon at 11:30 a.m., at the stadium. Coach Stoops' comments, beginning at noon, available via telephone to media only (contact Athletics Media Relations for more information). A few players also are available. All coaches^ and players* who do not participate in the luncheon are available following practice. Practice is open to photographers for the first 15 minutes.

Wednesday: Coaching staff available following practice. No player availability. Practice is open to photographers for the first 15 minutes.

Thursday, Friday & Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate locker room areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Bob Stoops and several Sooner players will be brought to a designated interview area. At home games, that area is the Big Red Room, located in the Switzer Center (first floor).

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, interview requests will be collected.

For games in Norman, the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room, the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Media Relations Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the post-game policy of that institution.

 Some players have evening classes that could preclude them from post-practice interviews.*

^ Bob Stoops' weekly radio show takes place each Tuesday night during the season. Depending on the length of the workout, he may not be available for interviews after practice.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records in 2004. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in Memorial Stadium history have occured in the past two seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2004 for six home games was 84,532. OU ranked first in the Big 12 Conference and No. 9 in the nation in average attendance. Oklahoma ranked No. 4 in the nation in percent of stadium capacity filled for home games at 104 percent.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on November 13, 2004. The Sooners stormed past rival Nebraska, 30-3, in front of 84,916 fans.

OU has compiled a 36-1 record at home (.972) under head coach Bob Stoops (1999-2004). Not coincidentally, those five seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance

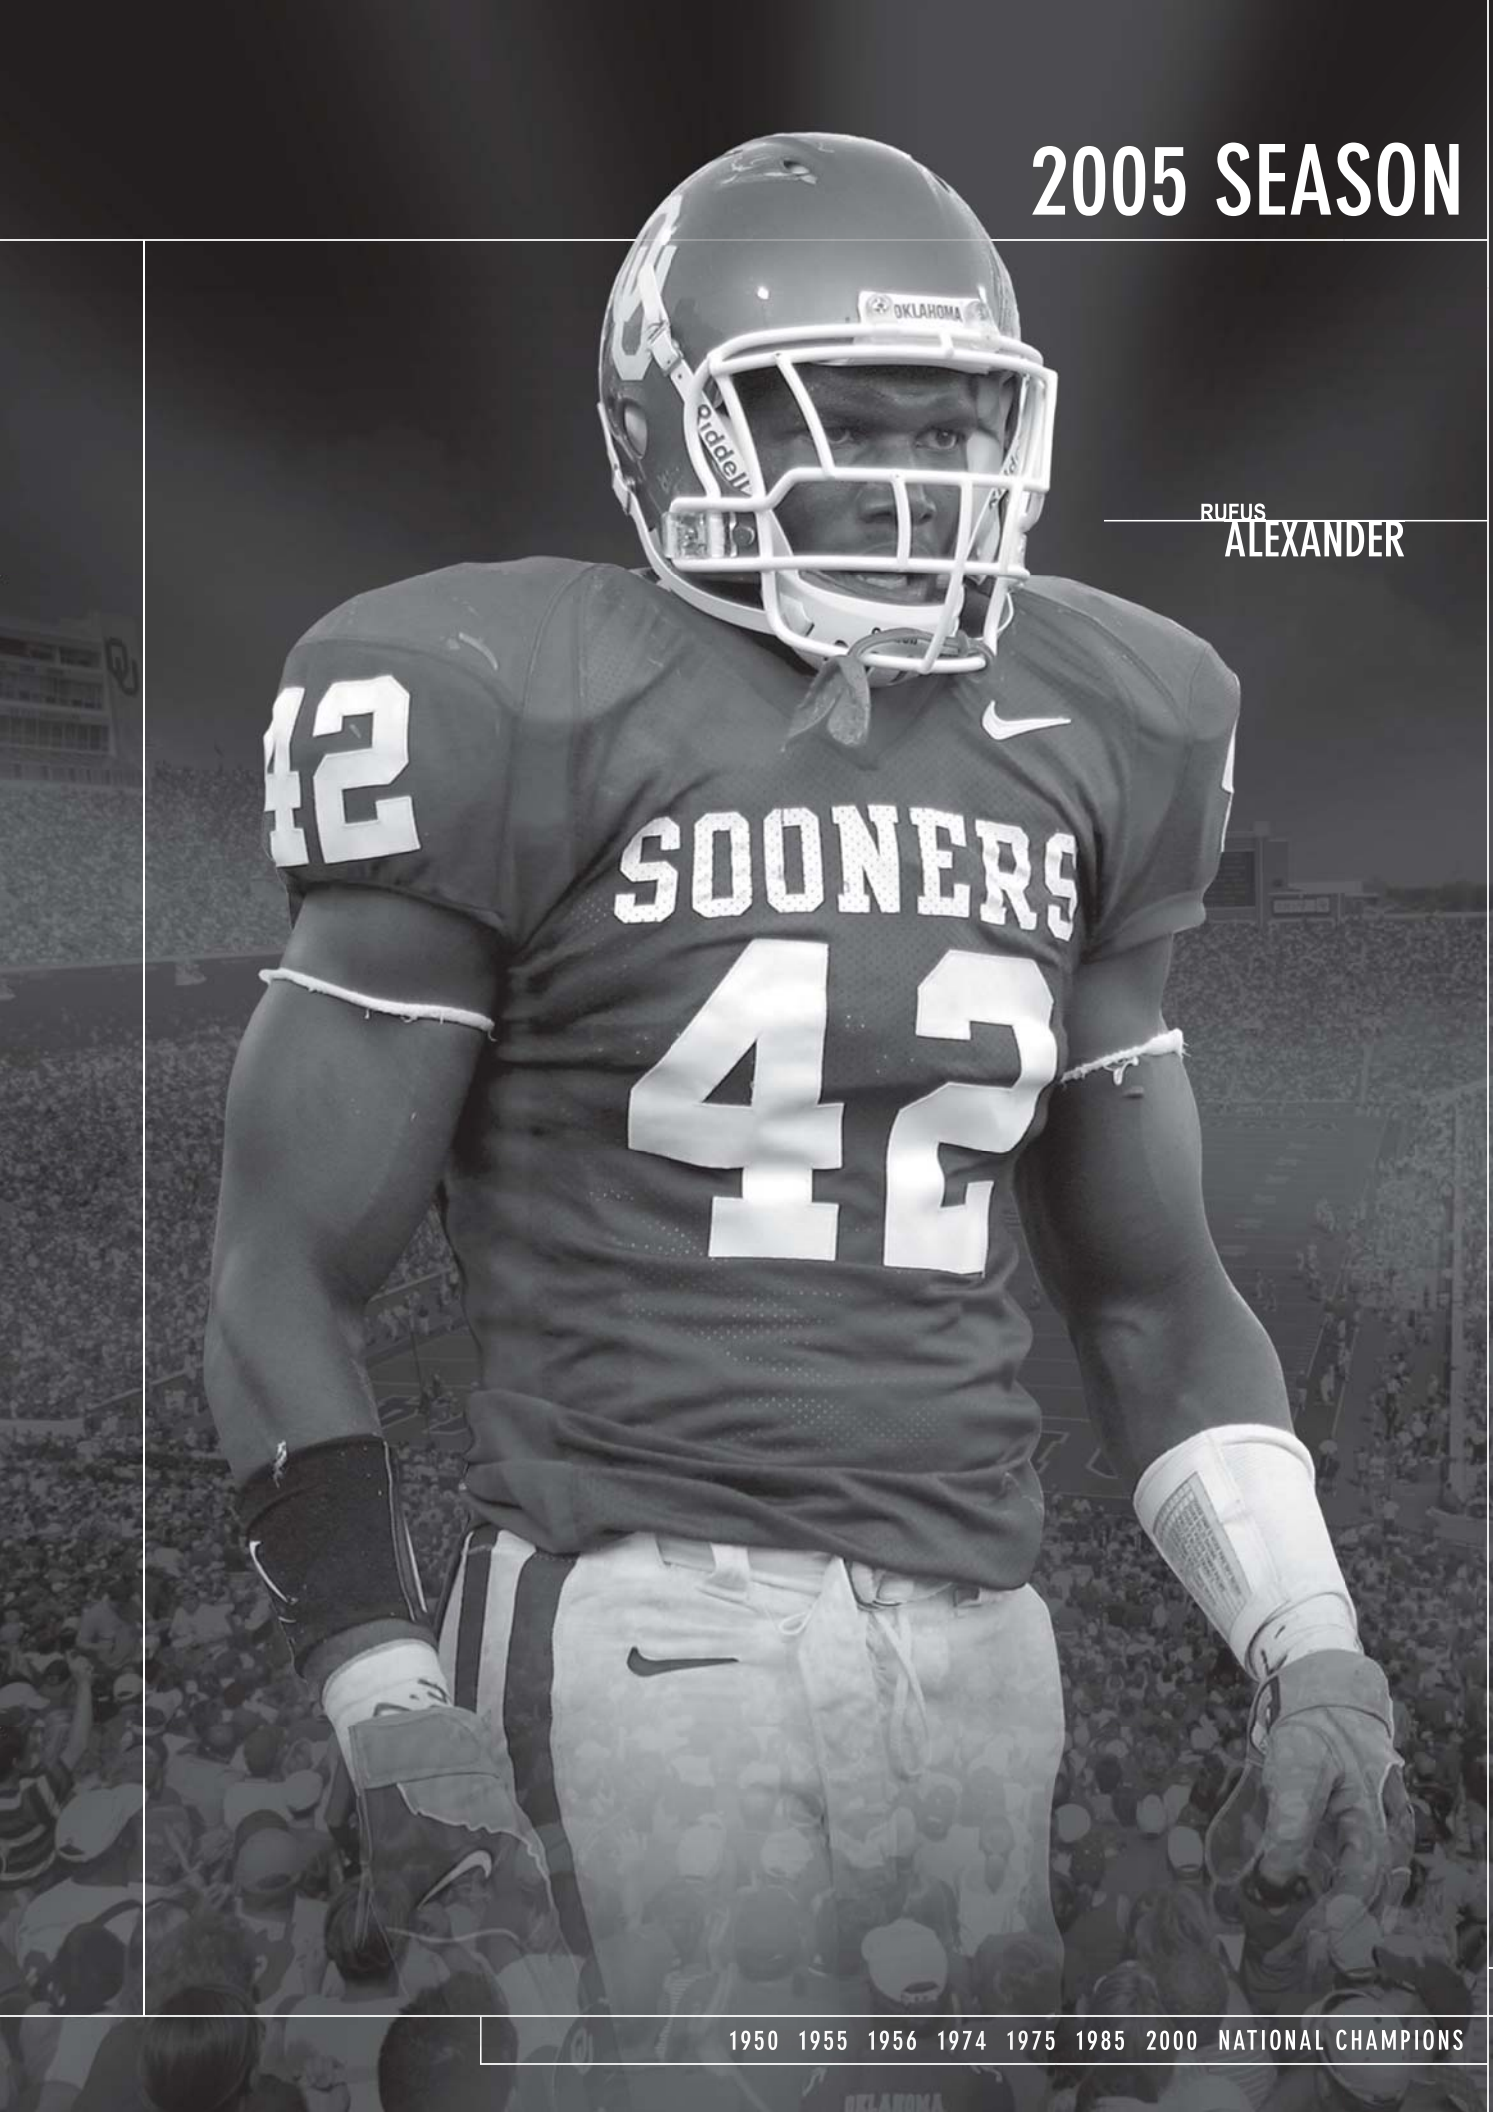
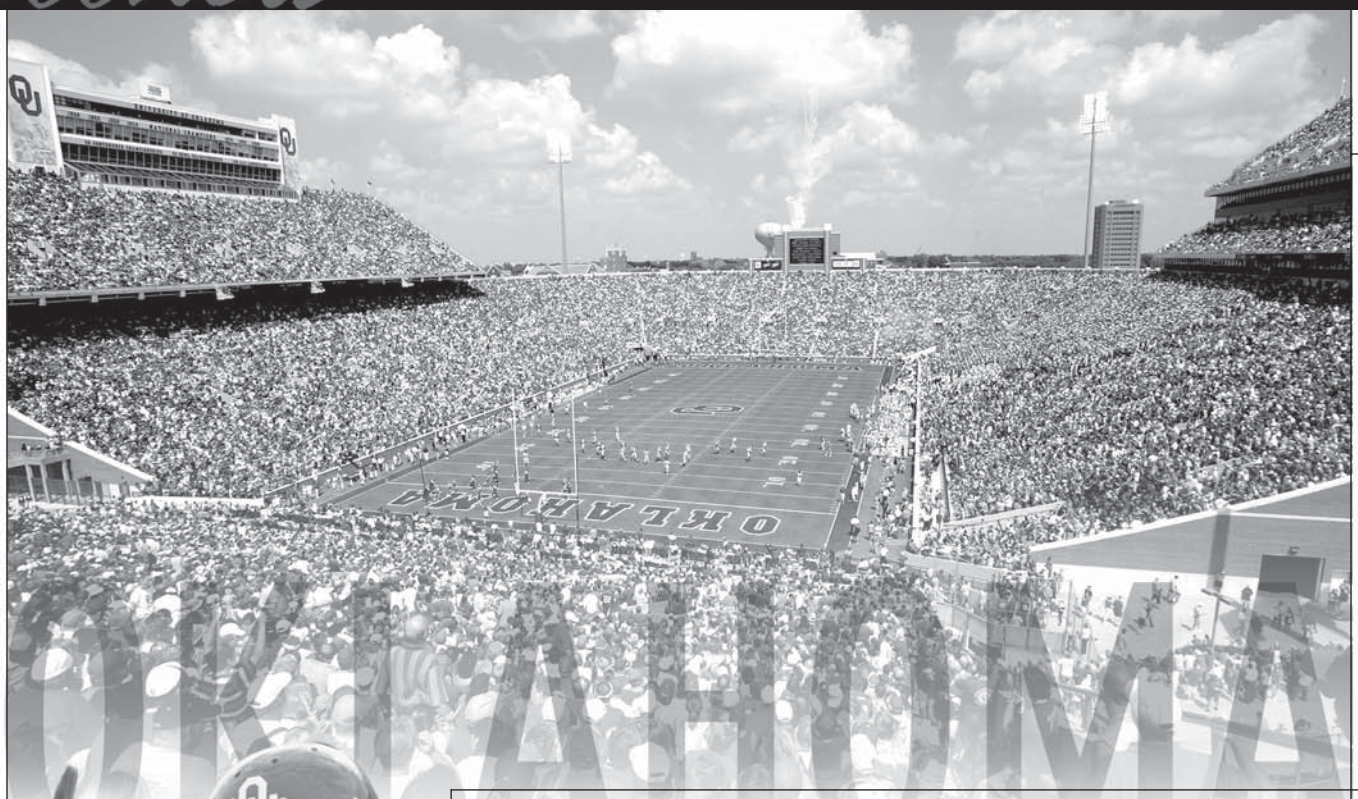
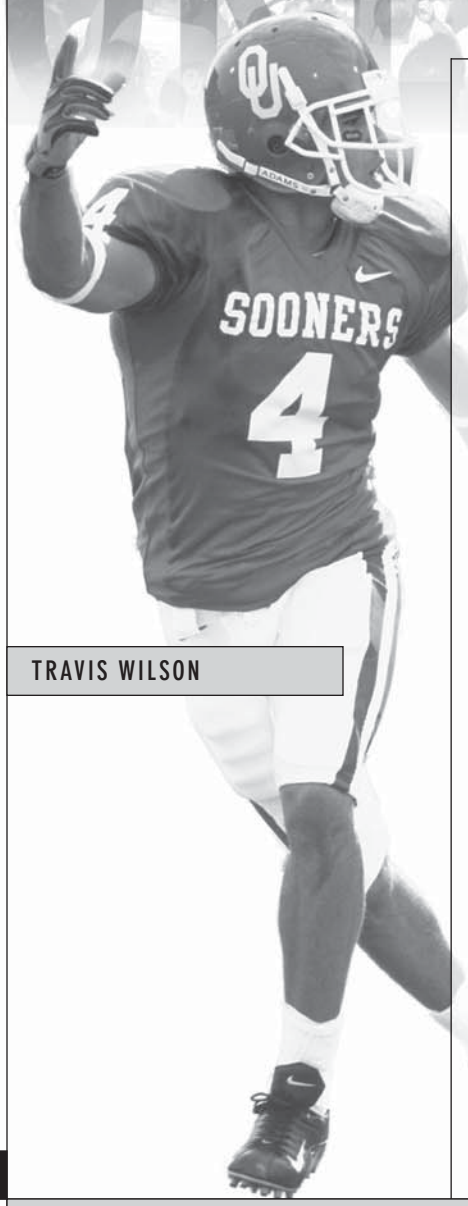
2005 SEASON



RUFUS
ALEXANDER

1950 1955 1956 1974 1975 1985 2000 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS





TRAVIS WILSON

THE SOONER OFFENSE

Draft day was a "10" for Oklahoma, as in 10 Sooners being selected by NFL franchises. So brilliant was the accomplishment, unmatched by any other school, that it overshadowed an even larger number, 17.

Seventeen is the number of players with starting experience returning for Oklahoma in 2005. When Bob Stoops and his staff scan the field in August, they will see most of the positions filled by players who have filled them before.

Moreover, recent recruiting success points to the fact that Oklahoma will again be stocked with a talented roster. At a time when some schools might look ahead with a degree of concern, the Sooners approach the coming season with anticipation.

The question looming now isn't so much "how" but "who."

The fact that OU can withstand the departure of a Heisman winner, an Outland winner and several other honorees and still be mentioned among the nation's elite programs underscores Stoops' impact and blurs even more the memory of how things were in the few years before he arrived.

It also sets before this program a challenge, something that has inspired the best from the Sooners in the past.

2005 Season Preview

When it comes to scheming an offense, Oklahoma's staff knows a thing or two about flexibility. Two years ago, the Sooners operated primarily from the shotgun with a quarterback so hindered by knee surgeries that he couldn't take a snap under center. One year later, the team was often in power sets.

There could be more tweaking on the horizon. OU must replace a quarterback that won the Heisman Trophy, then repeated the following year as a finalist (Jason White).

The Sooners must also replace an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown), a two-time Rimington Award finalist (Vince Carter), the school's all-time leading receiver (Mark Clayton) and an offensive tackle who had more career starts than any other player on the team (Wes Sims).

The well is far from dry, however. Oklahoma returns a number of key components in players like Adrian Peterson, Travis Wilson and Davin Joseph to name just a few.

Despite the departure of some of the greatest players in school history there is a group ready to duplicate and perhaps exceed the achievements of their predecessors.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Quarterback

Returning players with starting experience: None.

For the first time under Stoops, Oklahoma will start a quarterback who was not recruited six years ago. From Josh Heupel to Nate Hybl to Jason White, every OU starter under this coach came from the 1999 class ... until now. For 2005, the starter will emerge from a more recently signed, but just as highly touted crop of players.

The backup last season was Tommy Grady, a 6-7 sophomore whose arm strength and accuracy make a formidable package. He played sparingly behind White last season, but connected on 12-of-14 passes and never looked uncomfortable.

The other two candidates are cut from a different cloth.

Paul Thompson, who redshirted last season after serving as the backup in 2003, and Rhett Bomar, who redshirted last season as a true freshman, bring the run-throw option.

The ability level is so high among the three that any could likely step in and play well. The question mark lies in experience and leadership. Grady and Thompson have seen only late-game duty, while Bomar, one of the nation's top-rated prospects in 2003, has yet to take a college snap.

The coaches will spend the early days determining which one fits best with the team and, in the very best coach speak, gives the Sooners the best opportunity to win.

Running Back

Returning players with starting experience: Kejuan Jones, Adrian Peterson.

Adrian Peterson became perhaps the most decorated freshman back in the history of college football last season when he rushed for 1,925 yards, a figure that eclipsed both the OU (all classes) and NCAA freshman mark. He'll work behind a re-tooled line, but his presence cannot be overrated.

His stable mate from a year ago, Kejuan Jones, also returns. The senior has more than 2,000 career rushing yards and is also a dangerous receiver. Senior Donta Hickson and sophomore Jacob Gutierrez are also in the mix.

The fullback slot is solid with three-year returning starter J.D. Runnels. Largely unsung for his role as a blocker and receiver, Runnels earns constant praise from the coaching staff. Backups will be developed through fall workouts.

Receivers

Returning players with starting experience: Jejuan Rankins, Travis Wilson.

Unseating Mark Clayton was no small chore, but that's exactly what Travis Wilson did last year when he wrestled away the team lead in touchdown receptions. He found the end zone 11 times and established himself as one of the best in the Big 12. He will be a fixture around which this receiving corps, which lost four seniors, will build.

Jejuan Rankins reminds some of the departed Clayton in terms of elusiveness. The door stands wide open for him to take on a far more significant role. Another interesting development is the return of Tristen Ross, who was with the team two years ago.

Otherwise, the receiving group will be young. Quentin Chaney and Lendy Holmes redshirted last season and showed promise. They will likely be integrated quickly. Also look for a highly touted true freshman crop to get a serious look.

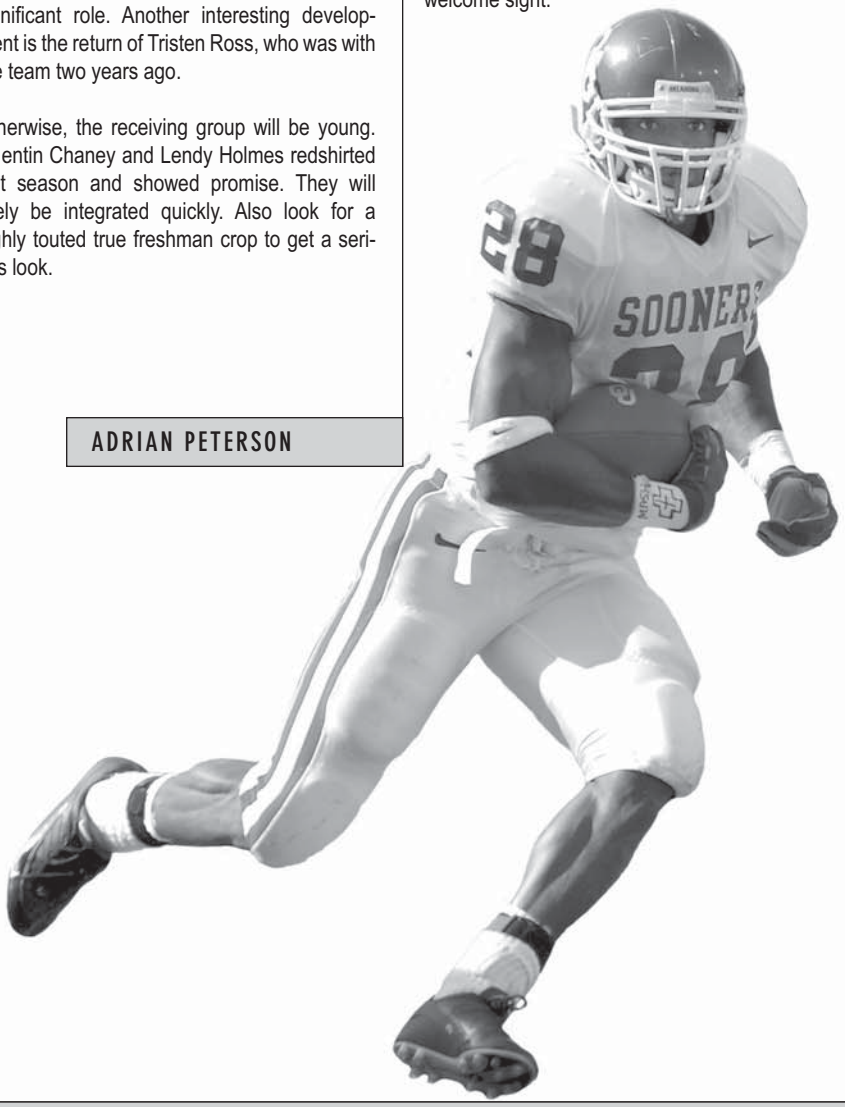
Tight Ends

Returning players with starting experience: James Moses.

The tight ends cast is unchanged from a year ago, which means Oklahoma remains deep and versatile. James "Bubba" Moses got most of the snaps and was the leading pass catcher among the group last season. He is an all-around player who has proved himself a sound receiver and blocker.

He is joined by Willie Roberts, who at 6-7 provides the biggest target, and Joe Jon Finley, the youngest player and perhaps best overall athlete of the trio. Another to watch is Chris Chester, who despite playing more extensively in the offensive line, could still show up as an extra tight end in some sets.

With less experienced wide receivers, a tight end group a little longer in the tooth will be a welcome sight.



ADRIAN PETERSON

SEASON OUTLOOK

Offensive Line

Returning players with starting experience: C/G Chris Bush, G Kelvin Chaisson, G Davin Joseph, T Chris Messner.

Oklahoma produced the Outland Trophy winner last year in Jammal Brown, but could have just as easily promoted another of its linemen for that award. From the time Davin Joseph drew his first start at OU, in the 2003 Big 12 title game no less, he has been among the team's best.

A guard throughout his career, he will now spend time at tackle, a position he tried briefly last August. Regardless of where he lines up, the senior will be a candidate for the highest honors.

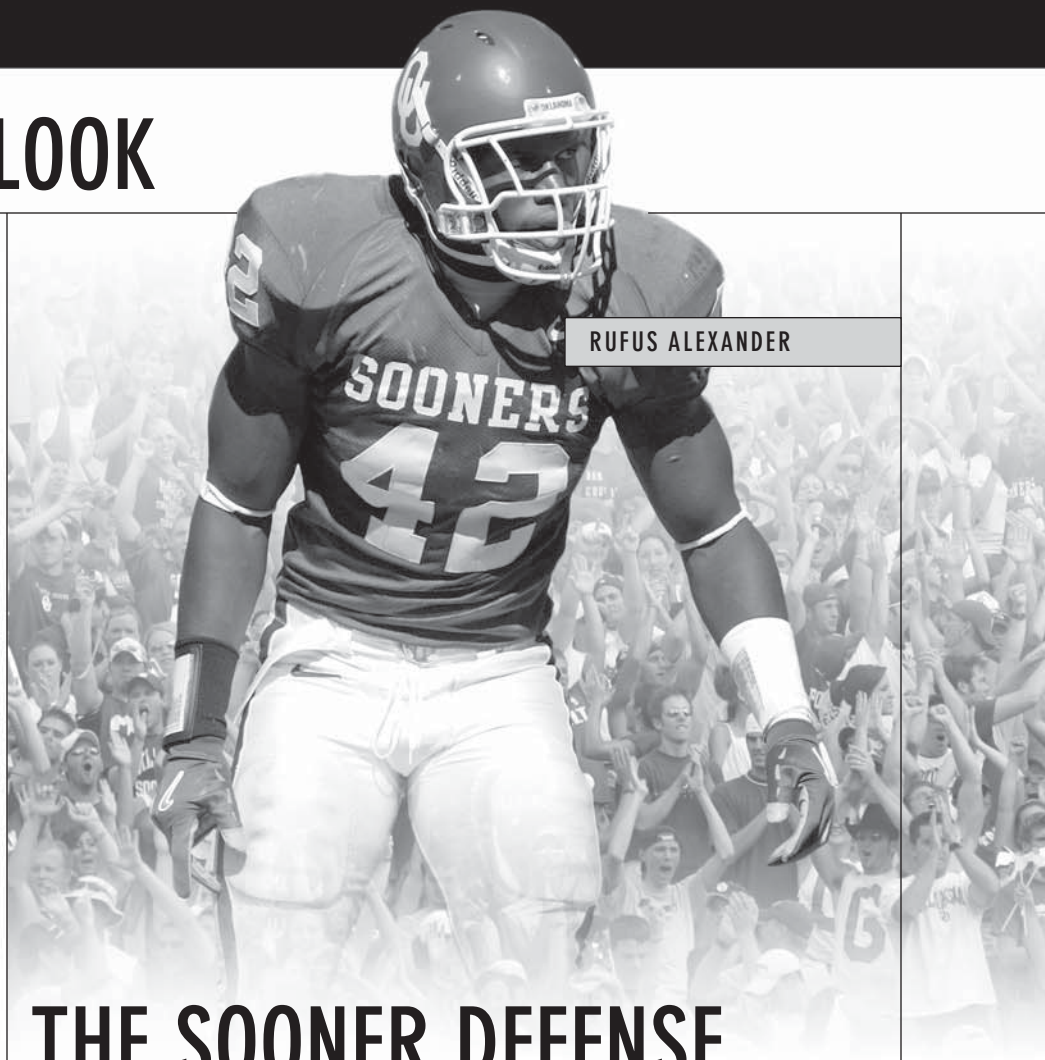
Joseph is one of five seniors in this year's mix and the youngest of the group. The other four are all fifth-year players. Three have extensive starting experience and another has played in short yardage situations.

Among that group are Kelvin Chaisson and Chris Bush, who split time at guard last season. Chaisson is likely to remain at that position, while Bush is a candidate at center. Another who figures somewhere in that center/guard mix is Chris Chester, a converted tight end who was featured in OU's jumbo sets last season.

Chris Messner started at left tackle in the 2003 season opener and has since worked in a reserve role. Akim Millington, a promising sophomore who backed up Jammal Brown last season, is another who will be called upon to step forward at tackle. Brett Rayl is a talented fifth-year senior who figures to get the most extensive look of his career.

From the younger ranks, J.D. Quinn and Cameron Schacht, both of whom redshirted last season, and mid-year arrivals Branndon Braxton and Ben Barresi will get a look.

The losses were significant with Brown, center Vince Carter and Wes Sims, but the presence of five seniors offers some solace.



RUFUS ALEXANDER

THE SOONER DEFENSE

Up front and in the linebacker corps, 2004 witnessed the emergence of a number of talented young players — a good thing considering seven starters have since been lost to graduation or the professional ranks.

Several of those names were of the household variety, but there also were the likes of Rufus Alexander, Larry Birdine, Clint Ingram and Marcus Walker who were elbowing their way into the spotlight.

Much of the responsibility will fall on those who made their splash last season, while some newcomers and other youngsters get their shot at greater prominence.

Defensive Line

Returning players with starting experience: DE Larry Birdine, DT Dusty Dvoracek, DT Carl Pendleton.

Oklahoma had a great set of bookends last season with Dan Cody and Jonathan Jackson. Athletic and experienced, they were among the best tandems in the land. They're gone now, but all is not lost at end.

2005 Season Preview

Larry Birdine, who drew one start in 2003, figures to step into one of those jobs. He played nearly the same number of snaps as last season's starters and possesses a lot of the same qualities that made Cody and Jackson so effective.

The other end spot is less certain. Calvin Thibodeaux missed last season with a knee injury, but will likely be a candidate. The same can be said of junior Leanar Nixon, sophomores Alonzo Dotson and John Williams, redshirt freshman Alan Davis and mid-year junior college transfer C.J. Ah You, who spent the 2001 season playing at BYU.

On the interior, OU lost Lynn McGruder, but returns most of the rest of last season's four-man rotation, plus a former All-Big 12 player. Dusty Dvoracek missed most of last season, but worked his way back and rejoined the team for winter conditioning. He will be an anchor in the middle.

Another returning starter is Carl Pendleton, who stepped in for Dvoracek last season. Others to watch include senior Remi Ayodele, who drew one start last season, sophomore Steven Coleman and redshirt freshman Cory Bennett.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Linebackers

Returning players with starting experience: Rufus Alexander, Clint Ingram.

Of the three who played the most, two are back in outside backers Rufus Alexander and Clint Ingram. Both saw the first extensive action of their respective careers last season and showed themselves to be fast and physical. Now, they're a year smarter, too.

Lance Mitchell is gone from the middle and that's a significant loss. The Sooners will look at alignment and candidates to see who fits best where. Two younger players on the rise are Zach Latimer and Demarrio Pleasant. Both run extremely well and pack a punch. Latimer was Mitchell's backup last season and he is capable of making a run at the job.

Much like the receiving corps, the freshman class offers candidates who may be capable of playing right away.

Defensive Backs

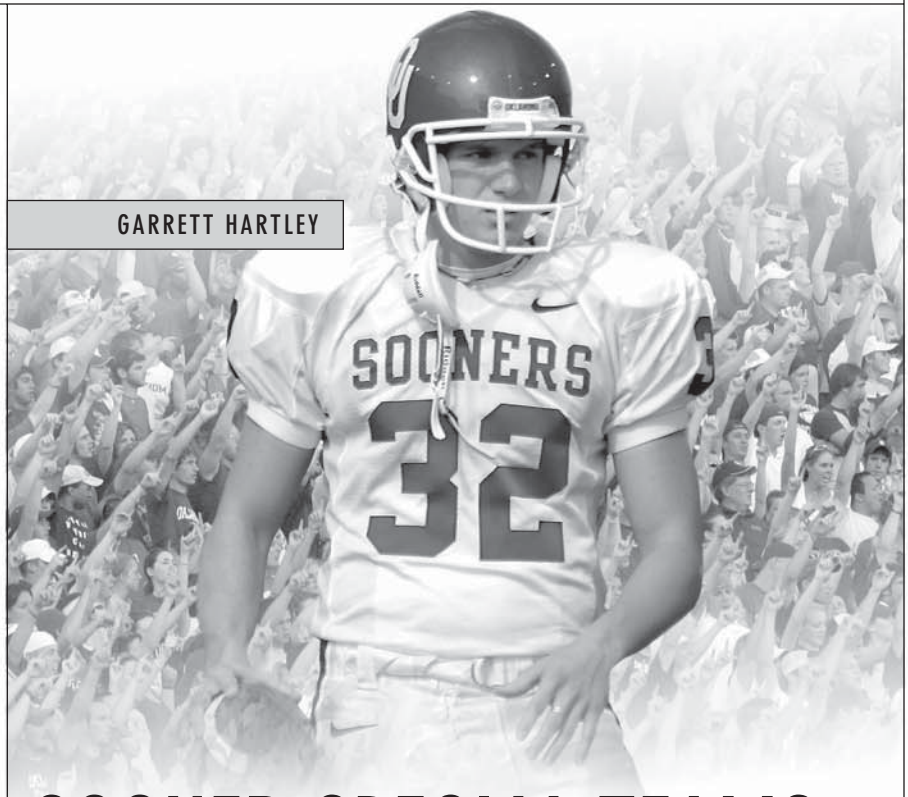
Returning players with starting experience: CB Eric Bassey, CB Chijioke Onyenegecha, CB Marcus Walker.

There is little debate over the fact that the biggest questions loom in the secondary. Only true sophomore Marcus Wallker returns from the foursome that started the final four games of last season, and he missed spring practice following shoulder surgery.

At cornerback, where OU must replace Antonio Perkins, the Sooners' roster includes Walker, who started the last three games last season, along with Eric Bassey and Chijioke Onyenegecha, both of whom had starts at the position in 2004, Jowahn Poteat and D.J. Wolfe, who converted to the position from running back last spring.

The strong safety is another spot that will feature a new starter. Donte Nicholson had the job over the last two seasons. Candidates include converted linebacker Lewis Baker and Jason Carter.

At free safety, Darien Williams and Tony Cade are frontrunners.



GARRETT HARTLEY

SOONER SPECIAL TEAMS

Returning players with starting experience: K Garrett Hartley, RS Jejuan Rankins, LS Jacob Rice, RS Travis Wilson.

It looked as though Oklahoma would introduce a new placekicker and punter in 2005. Then came the game No. 11 trip to Baylor. That was the game in which Garrett Hartley's redshirt was removed and the true freshman took over as the kicker.

He finished the season making all 12 of his extra points and his lone field goal attempt, and is now cemented in the position. Diminutive in stature, Hartley has a strong leg and a ball that rises quickly.

The punting job will have a new name, and that's saying something at Oklahoma. For the previous seven seasons, one of the Ferguson brothers, Jeff (1998-2001) and Blake (2002-04), had the responsibility.

With Blake's graduation, the lone returnee is sophomore Cody Freeby, a left-footed kicker who is yet to perform under game conditions for OU. Mike Knall, a transfer from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, will make a bid for the position as well.

2005 Season Preview

Most of those charged with returning punts and kickoffs last season must be replaced. Antonio Perkins had the punt return responsibility. When he was out due to injury, Mark Clayton was the replacement. On kickoff returns, Mark Bradley and Travis Wilson were the deep receivers.

Of those four players, only Wilson returns. Jejuan Rankins has experience as both a punt and kickoff returner and would be a logical fit. The review of others will extend into August.

The long-snapping job is safe in the hands of senior Jacob Rice. He has been as reliable in his role as any player on the team.

A new holder must be located with Bradley's departure. Auditions for that position also will continue as the team convenes for fall drills.

BOB STOOPS

Head Coach | Seventh Season | Record at Oklahoma: 67-12 (.848)

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football.

Such dramatics are lost on Bob Stoops. The Sooner head coach befriended the would-be albatross of OU's successful past from his first day on campus and remains steadfastly focused on tomorrow and the championship it holds.

It falls then to long-time observers and experts of the game to define Stoops' impact. Rarely have the pundits had it so easy.

Under Stoops, Oklahoma has won 67 games, spent 72 consecutive weeks in the national rankings, played in six bowl games, four of the BCS variety, taken part in three national championship games and captured three Big 12 crowns. On a playing field leveled by scholarship limits and parity, this era stares down the Oklahoma standard and does not blink.

The achievement is so brilliant that it dulls the memory of what Stoops inherited. When he arrived in Norman, the proud Sooner program was five years removed from a winning record; four from a postseason appearance. Those atypical days of angst are so forgotten now that they might as well be categorized with the Land Rush and Dust Bowl.

Stoops has been characterized as a grounded family man, brilliant big-game coach, relentless recruiter, strong leader and a person with uncommon perspective. His success emanates from a disciplined style true to his roots in the Steel Valley of Ohio, but he is far from inflexible. The principles to which he holds are the tried and true axioms of the sport … mixed with cutting edge strategy and an appreciation for the calculated risk.

During his time, OU has produced record–setting passers and receivers, two 1,000-yard rushers, suffocating defense and special teams units that rank among the most dynamic in the land. The Sooners have been nothing if not versatile.

The son of a coach, Stoops was a four-year starter at Iowa. He began his coaching career in 1983 as a volunteer in the Hawkeye program under Hayden Fry, working through the ranks until he became co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State (1991-95).

With the Wildcats, he played a key role in their impressive turnaround. During his final four seasons there, K-State was 35-12 with three bowl appearances.

Eventually, he left for Florida and a three-year stint as Steve Spurrier's defensive coordinator. In 1996, he was part of a national championship team. It was with the Gators that the spotlight found Stoops and made him one of the hottest names in the profession. His hiring at Oklahoma was one for the ages.

OU Coaching Accomplishments

• Stoops is 67-12 overall, 3-3 in bowls, 3-2 in January bowls, 2-2 in BCS games, 44-8 vs. the Big 12, 25-5 vs. the Big 12 South, 19-3 vs. the Big 12 North, 3-1 in the Big 12 title game, 24-4 vs. non-conference opponents, 36-1 at home, 20-6 on the road, 11-5 on neutral fields and 21-5 vs. ranked opponents.

• OU has set or tied more than 169 school records under Stoops, not including bowl bests and marks specific to a particular position (i.e., receptions by a running back). Among those marks under Stoops are passing for a game, season and career; receiving for a game, season and career and rushing for a season.

• Stoops has authored two of the seven longest winning streaks in Oklahoma history. His 2000 and 2001 teams won 20 straight, while the 2002 and 2003 teams reeled off 14 in a row. Those victories all came against I-A opponents.

• OU won the 2000 national championship, played for two more and captured four Big 12 South crowns and three Big 12 titles. Oklahoma has spent 22 weeks at No. 1.

• An OU player has finished among the top seven in the Heisman voting five times: Adrian Peterson (No. 2 in 2004), Jason White (No. 3 in 2004), Jason White (No. 1 in 2003), Roy Williams (No. 7 in 2001) and Josh Heupel (No. 2 in 2000).

• OU has had a double-digit lead in 66 of 79 games.

HEAD COACH

• Oklahoma has played in six bowl games. Never had an OU coach taken even his first three teams to bowls. Prior to Stoops' arrival, OU had gone four straight years without a bowl, and had not played in one of what is now a BCS game since the 1988 Orange Bowl (1987 season). Stoops, in his second season, led OU to the 2001 Orange Bowl (2000 season).

• Under Stoops, OU produced 27 All-Americans, two AP Players of the Year (Heupel, White), two Nagurski Award winners (Williams, Derrick Strait), two Thorpe Award winners (Williams, Strait), two Butkus Award winners (Rocky Calmus, Teddy Lehman), one Bednarik Award winner (Lehman), one Lombardi Award winner (Tommie Harris), one Walter Camp winner (Josh Heupel) two O'Brien Award winners (Jason White twice), a Maxwell Award winner (White), a Unitas Award winner (White), an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown) and one Mosi Tatupu Award winner (J.T. Thatcher). OU has had a Butkus finalist in four of the last five years and a Lombardi finalist in three of the last four. The Sooners also had finalists for the Biletnikoff, Groza, Guy, Hendricks, Mackey and Doak Walker awards.

Previous Coaching Accomplishments

• In 1996 and 1997, his Florida defense scored eight touchdowns. The 1996 Gators won the national championship.

• During his final four seasons in Manhattan, Kansas State posted a 35-12 record and played in three bowl games.

• He assisted K-State to its first 10-win season with a defense that allowed seven or fewer points in six games, including three shutouts. In 1995, his unit led the nation in total defense (250.8 ypg) with four defensive backs named All-Big Eight.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Coached his second 1,000-yard rusher in the last three years in Adrian Peterson. Peterson set a school season record and NCAA freshman rushing record with 1,925 yards.

• Also has tutored Kejuan Jones, who has more than 2,000 yards during his career.

• Adept at securing the ball, Gundy's 2004 backs logged 48 receptions for 377 yards and rarely lost a fumble (OU lost only nine as a team).

• Coached 2003 OU backs to 1,896 yards and 4.4 yards per carry. The Sooner backfield also hauled in 54 passes for three touchdowns.

• In 2003, Oklahoma's running backs were charged with just two fumbles lost.

• Coached Quentin Griffin, who finished his career as the No. 2 rusher in Sooner history. In 2002, he gained 1,884 yards and ranked No. 6 in the nation with 134.6 yards per game.

• Griffin, a concensus All-Big 12 first team selection, became the first Sooner to surpass 1,000 yards since 1998 and also finished his career as the school's second-leading receiver.

• No OU back lost a fumble during in 2002.

• Oklahoma backs fumbled just twice during the 2001 season, all in the first three games of the season.

• Quentin Griffin caught one pass in a school record 29 consecutive games.

• In 2000, OU backs produced 32 rushing touchdowns, up from 15 in 1999. First team All-Big 12 Quentin Griffin scored 16 touchdowns, second most in the conference. His six touchdowns against Texas on Oct. 7 was a Sooner single-game record.

Prominent Pupils

• Adrian Peterson (Oklahoma)
Consensus All-American;
highest-finishing freshman (second) in the history of the Heisman trophy.
• Quentin Griffin (Oklahoma), Broncos
First team All-Big 12;
Second team All-American

Accomplishments as a Player

• Held virtually all of the Sooners' single-game, single-season and career passing records until they were re-written by Josh Heupel (1999-2000) and Jason White (2000-04).

• Paced the Sooners to a 31-13-2 record in his four seasons.

• One of only three OU quarterbacks to throw for more than 4,000 yards (Heupel, White).

• All-conference as a senior.

• Big Eight Offensive Newcomer of the Year after setting passing marks for completions (54), attempts (109) and yards (904).

Coaching Accomplishments

• Despite losing a pair of All-Americans and featuring one transfer and two freshmen in the rotation, he crafted a defensive interior that showed perhaps more improvement than any area on the team during the course of the season.

• In 2003 he coached Tommie Harris, the winner of the Rotary Lombardi Award and a consensus All-American. Harris also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards.

• Also coached All-Big 12 performer Dusty Dvoracek in 2003.

• OU's interior linemen had 32 tackles for loss and 15 sacks in 2003.

• Two of his players, Tommie Harris and Kory Klein, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2001.

• In 2000, he had four defensive linemen selected to All-Big 12 teams including first team selection Ryan Fisher.

Accomplishments as a Player

• A first-round pick (14th overall) of the Miami Dolphins where he played five seasons. He helped the Dolphins post a 48-31 record, make two playoff appearances and advance to the 1985 Super Bowl. Shipp was the Dolphins' leading tackler (79) in 1987 and finished his career in Miami with 231 tackles.

• Played one season with the Los Angeles Raiders (1988).

• A standout linebacker at the University of Oklahoma, he starred on Sooner squads that posted a combined 33-14-1 record, won two bowl games and captured the 1980 Big Eight Championship.

• Earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior, and was selected as an All-American by Football News following his junior campaign.

• In the 1982 border clash with Texas, Shipp was a one-man wrecking crew with 23 tackles, just three shy of the OU single-game total record.

• Totaled 477 total tackles in his career which stands second on the OU list for career tackles. Also owns the single-season record for tackles (182) during his sophomore campaign in 1981.

Coaching Accomplishments

• OU's tight ends became a more integral part of the Sooner offensive scheme in Sumlin's second season (2004). The group went from 18 receptions for 219 yards and two touchdowns in 14 games of the 2003 season to 23 catches for 226 yards and four touchdowns in 12 games.

• Coached 2003 tight ends to 18 receptions and saw Lance Donley make the first touchdown grabs (2) of his career.

• Became Texas A&M's offensive coordinator after the third game of the 2002 season. Prior to the switch, the Aggies had scored just 48 points in three games (16.0 per), but afterwards, A&M put 297 points on the board, or 33.0 per contest. The offense averaged 419 yards per game after just netting 286 in the first three contests.

• The 1998 Purdue receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 touchdowns.

• Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

Prominent Pupils

• Chris Daniels (Purdue), Buccaneers
• Ike Jones (Purdue), Colts
• Cory Sauter (Minnesota), Colts
• Vinnie Sutherland (Purdue), 49ers
• Ryan Thelwell (Minnesota), Broncos

Accomplishments as a Player

• Four-year letterman for Purdue as a linebacker, from 1983-86, and ended his career among the top 10 in tackles for the Boilermakers.

• Named to Sports Illustrated's All-America walk-on list as a freshman when he led Purdue with 91 tackles.

• Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 1984. Led the team with 109 stops and helped the team reach the Peach Bowl. Also earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior, ranking No. 5 in the league with 114 tackles.

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2004, Wilson's offensive line featuring Outland winner and consensus All-American Jammal Brown and Walter Camp All-American and Rimington Award finalist Vince Carter cleared the way for Heisman runner-up Adrian Peterson's 1,925 rushing yards while allowing a Big 12-low nine sacks. Brown was the first lineman taken in the 2005 draft.

• The 2004 Sooners, who also featured Wes Sims, a sixth-round draft choice by the San Diego Chargers and All-Big 12 pick Davin Joseph, ranked No. 8 nationally in total offense while averaging 34.8 points per game.

• The 2003 Oklahoma team ranked No. 3 nationally with 42.9 points per game, while averaging 439.4 yards of total offense per game (No. 19 nationally).

• In 2002, the offensive line produced four post-season honorees as Quentin Griffin fell just 13 yards short of breaking Billy Sims school season rushing mark when he gained 1,884 yards. He also rushed for 100 or more yards in 12 games.

• As offensive coordinator at Northwestern, the 2001 Wildcats led the Big 10 in total offense and quarterback Zac Kustok was conference leader in that same category.

• In 2000, Northwestern set 25 school marks while ranking No. 3 nationally in total offense. The co-Big Ten champions were led by RB Damian Anderson, who rushed for a Big Ten record 193.6 yards per game.

• Also in 2000, Wilson was a candidate for the highest assistant coach honor when he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award.

• Wilson has helped produce 13, 1,000-yard rushers, including six with more than 1,500 yards. At Oklahoma, both Adrian Peterson (1,925 yards in 2004) and Quentin Griffin (1,884 yards in 2002) worked under Wilson. At Northwestern Damian Anderson gained 1,914 yards in 2000, and at Miami (Ohio), Travis Prentiss gained 1,878 yards in 1998 and 1,549 yards in 1997, while Deland McCullough picked up 1,627 in 1995.

DARRELL WYATT

Passing Game Coordintor/Receivers | Fourth Season

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2004, he coached one of the nation's deepest receiving corps, which proved itself equally skilled at hitting the home run (four of his players had receptions of 40 or more yards), while also making the difficult catch and blocking for a much-improved running game. The depth is perhaps best illustrated by the fact that Mark Clayton led the team in receptions and yards (66 for 876), Travis Wilson was first in touchdown receptions (11), while Mark Bradley had the top yards-per-catch figure (21.3).

• Saw Mark Clayton become Oklahoma's leader in both receptions and receiving yards by exceeding 200 catches and 3,000 yards.

• In 2003, Clayton set OU records for touchdown receptions in a season and career, 100-yard receiving games in a career, receptions in a season and receiving yards in a season and career.

• The elusive Sooner receivers gained 1,158 yards after the catch in 2003.

• Developed one of the most versatile receiving units ever at OU. Despite an offense that gained more than 2,000 rushing yards in 2002, the Sooners had four wide receivers with at least 25 catches and six with at least one TD reception.

THE WYATT FAMILY

• Was promoted to associate head coach/offensive coordinator shortly before leaving Kansas.

• The 1995 Wyoming team had one of the top receiving corps in the country with 3,005 receiving yards (273 ypg) and scored 23 touchdowns. All-American Marcus Harris caught 78 passes for 1,433 yards and 14 touchdowns.

• Helped the 1991 Trinity Valley team to the 1991 Texas Junior College Conference championship.

• Served three minority coaching fellowships in the NFL. He was with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the summer of 1996 and the Denver Broncos for the summers of 1997-and 1998.

Prominent Pupils

• Mark Clayton (Oklahoma), Ravens
2004 All-American and consensus All-Big 12; 2003 All-American and consensus All-Big 12; 2003 finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, holder of seven receiving records
• Antwone Savage (Oklahoma)

Oklahoma Athletics Sports Medicine

The University of Oklahoma has a rich five-decade history of setting a standard for sports medicine care, a tradition that continues today.

Head Athletic Trainer Scott Anderson, his staff and the team physicians comprise the professional staff. Anderson was named 2004 Trainer of the Year by the All-American Football Foundation.

Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Sooners. E. Randy Eichner, MD, Team Internist, is internationally recognized for his expertise in medicine issues related to sports. Martin Tippie, M.D., completes the Sooners' primary physician staff.

The state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede Sports Medicine Complex in the Barry Switzer Center provides a convenient location for the Sooners to receive their care. The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, x-ray, and physician assessment. Jim Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with SwimEx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

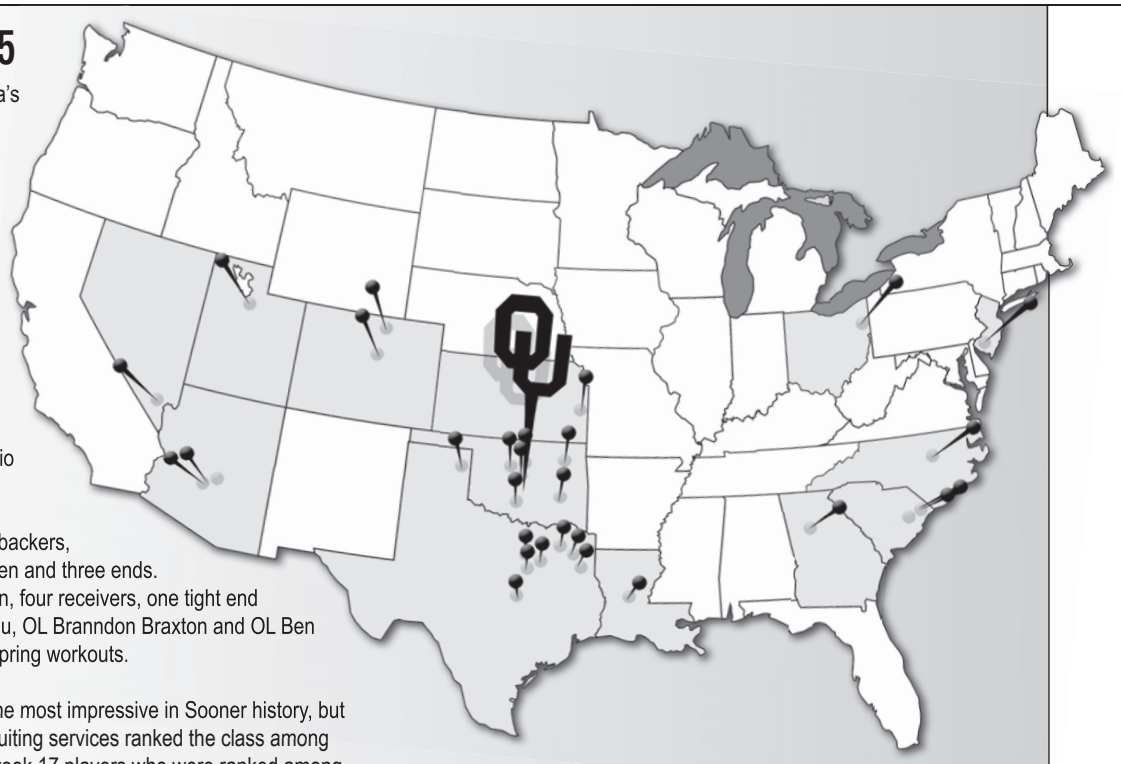
NEWCOMERS

The Class of 2005

The national scope of Oklahoma's football program was evident again as the Sooners incoming class of 2005 included 28 players hailing from 13 different states.

Of the 28 players, eight were from Texas, six from Oklahoma, two from Arizona, Colorado and South Carolina and one each from Georgia, Kansas, Louisiana, Nevada, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio and Utah.



The defense included three linebackers, five defensive backs, four linemen and three ends. The offense included six linemen, four receivers, one tight end and one fullback. DE C.J. Ah You, OL Branndon Braxton and OL Ben Barresi joined the program for spring workouts.

The class was not only one of the most impressive in Sooner history, but also in the nation. All of the recruiting services ranked the class among the top 10 nationally. In all, OU took 17 players who were ranked among the state's top 10 in 11 different states.

GAME SUMMARY

Balance? It rarely gets better than this. Oklahoma had 214 rushing yards and 213 passing yards. That, coupled with a defensive effort that kept Oregon's high-powered offense out of the end zone most of the day, led to OU's 31-7 victory over the Ducks. The win capped a fifth straight season in which the Sooners won all of their regular season non-conference games. Adrian Peterson ran for 183 yards and became the first OU freshman ever to gain 100 yards in his first three games. Jason White was steady, completing 17-of-23 passes for 213 yards and one touchdown. The defense, spearheaded by Donte Nicholson's 11 tackles, shut down the Oregon offense.

GAME SUMMARY

As matter of fact victories go, this one was, well, typical. Oklahoma took care of business in its Big 12 opener, 28-13. Jason White was the picture of efficiency, completing 15-of-24 passes with three touchdowns and no interceptions. Running back Adrian Peterson, making his first start, ran 22 times for 146 yards and one score. On defense, OU did something it had not done all season -- intercept a pass. In fact, it intercepted three, including two by Brodney Pool. Tech piled up yards, but its normally high-scoring offense did not yield a touchdown until the 4:50 mark of the final period, and its point output was 25 below its season average.

GAME SUMMARY

The scoreboard belied the dominance in OU's 12-0 Red River Shootout victory. Adrian Peterson shredded Texas for 225 yards on 32 carries and the Sooner defense held the Longhorns, No. 6 in the nation in scoring before the game, to a goose egg. It marked the first shutout of UT in 282 games, and the first by OU over its rival since 1972. The win was Oklahoma's fifth straight in the series, the second longest streak by OU over UT, and it gave Bob Stoops his 60th victory as the Sooners' head coach. Trey DiCarlo started the scoring with a pair of short field goals, made more treacherous by wet conditions. The Sooners then removed all doubt with an 11-play, 80-yard march midway through the fourth quarter. Kejuan Jones covered the last six yards to give Oklahoma a lead that looked twice as big due to the way the team's defense was playing.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma faced its first second-half deficit of the year, but rode a strong performance by Jason White to down a stubborn Kansas State team, 31-21, in a rematch of the previous season's conference title game. White fired four touchdown strikes and a dominant Sooner defense logged five sacks, while limiting KSU running back Darren Sproles to just 34 yards on 13 carries. Oklahoma trailed twice in the game, but after falling behind 21-17 in the third period, the Sooners mounted a 10-play, 72-yard drive that yielded the go-ahead score. White engineered the march, hitting all five of his passing attempts, including a 15-yarder to Mark Clayton for the TD.

GAME SUMMARY

Jason White feasted on a Kansas defense geared to stop the run and Oklahoma cruised past the Jayhawks, 41-10, in the annual home-coming game. White connected on 27-of-44 passes for 389 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions. And by the end of the day, that running game that KU was trying to stop erupted anyway. Adrian Peterson tied Emmitt Smith and Marshall Faulk in reaching the 1,000-yard mark as quickly as any freshman in 1-A history -- 7 games. He had 22 rushes for 122 yards and one touchdown. In the meantime, the OU defense shut down Kansas. Seventy-eight of the Jayhawks' 256 yards came on one play.

GAME SUMMARY

OU gift wrapped Oklahoma State's first two touchdowns, but rebounded to post a 38-35 win at Stillwater. Jason White tossed three first-half touchdown passes, all to Mark Bradley, and Adrian Peterson broke loose for a career-high 249 rushing yards to spearhead the offense. The OU defense held Cowboy running back Vernand Morency under 100 yards for the first time in the season. OSU had a chance to send the game to overtime, but Jason Ricks' 49-yard field goal with 11 seconds remaining sailed left.

Oklahoma trailed by 14 points three times before rallying on the strength of five Jason White touchdown passes to claim a 42-35 victory at No. 22 Texas A&M. A pair of A&M turnovers early in the second half, both deep in its own territory, set the table for OU, which cashed in both for TDs. Texas A&M, which scored two touchdowns on faked kicks, tied the game at 35 with 10:08 remaining, before White answered with a 39-yard TD strike to Mark Bradley.

GAME SUMMARY

On a night when 23 Oklahoma players saw their final action on Owen Field, the Sooners systematically dismantled Nebraska, 30-3, before a record home crowd of 84,916. Both Jason White and the OU defense played nearly flawless football. White connected on 29-of-35 passes for 383 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. During one stretch, he completed 18 consecutive throws to break his own school record. Travis Wilson proved to be the favorite target. He established career highs with nine receptions and 135 receiving yards. The defense came within one snap of shutting out Nebraska and ending the Huskers' 111-game scoring streak but NU was able to boot a 39-yard field goal on the game's final play.

GAME SUMMARY

Adrian Peterson tied an NCAA freshman record with his 10th, 100-yard rushing game of the season and OU steamrolled Baylor, 35-0, in the regular season finale for both teams. The Sooner offense was slow out of the gates, but went to the locker room with a 14-0 halftime lead on the strength of a late second-quarter touchdown that set the tone for the remainder of the game. Oklahoma's defense was nearly flawless in racking up a season-high seven sacks. Larry Birdine had three of those sacks and also forced a fumble that set up the Sooners' first touchdown of the game. Baylor managed just two pushes into OU territory, one each half, and the Bears got no deeper than the 44 in the second half. Garrett Hartley shed his redshirt during the second quarter and converted all four of his extra point attempts.

GAME SUMMARY

Thirty-eight times before Oklahoma had won a conference championship in football. But rarely had the Sooners been so dominating in sewing up a league crown as they were in securing No. 39. OU steamrolled Colorado 42-3 and thus secured an invitation to the BCS title game. The Sooner offense was its typically high-powered self, but this was a night when the defense simply broke an opponent's will. Colorado had three first downs for the game and recorded 46 total yards, the fewest by any opponent during the Bob Stoops era. All the while, the OU offense was moving at will, especially early when it scored on four of its first five possessions.

GAME SUMMARY

USC didn't need any help, but Oklahoma was willing to oblige anyway. The Trojans played a nearly flawless game, made even more so by five OU turnovers, and cruised to the BCS title, 55-19. Oklahoma got on the board first after marching 92 yards in 12 plays. USC answered with a touchdown on its next possession before the teams traded punts. The game turned for good when OU's Mark Bradley muffed the punt and Southern Cal scored on the next play. Oklahoma finished the season at 12-1.

Oklahoma's 11-game schedule for 2005 includes six home games at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. TCU, Tulsa, Kansas State, Baylor, Texas A&M and Oklahoma State highlight the schedule in Norman. The Sooners travel to the Rose Bowl to battle UCLA in their final non-conference game. Big 12 road highlights include the annual showdown with Texas at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, KU at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, Nebraska at Lincoln and Texas Tech in Lubbock.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State 34-13 before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac Ten) and the Big Nine, (now the Big 10). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

GAME SUMMARY

OU won its first national championship by going a perfect 10-0 in the regular season. However, Kentucky, coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant, upset the Sooners and broke a 31-game OU winning streak. OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

GAME SUMMARY

It was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Seven champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champ. Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

GAME SUMMARY

The 47-game winning streak had been broken earlier in the season, but the Sooners still came into the game ranked No. 4. Duke, the ACC winner, was unranked. Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TD, including an OU bowl record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and quarterback Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory. The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for the Oklahoma team was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing the Oklahoma team.

Florida State used a sophisticated passing attack to win easily. To add insult to injury, four of the Seminoles' TD passes were thrown on fourth-down plays. Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma had won the Big Eight title in Chuck Fairbank's first year as head coach. Although a slight underdog to the Vols, OU broke out to a 19-0 halftime lead. Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Volunteers then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to forge the tie with the Crimson Tide.

The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

It was Oklahoma's first bowl trip under legendary head coach Barry Switzer and a storybook setting. Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

Dupree ran wild early, amassing 239 yards before recurrent leg injuries forced him out in the third quarter. The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. The Devils took over at the OU 43 and later scored when Darryl Clack raced 15 yards for at TD.

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after an Oklahoma field goal, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. The only problem was the drivers apparently had not received the proper permission for the trip. The team was penalized 15 yards and the loss of the three points.

GAME SUMMARY

A swarming defense, a record field goal performance and two big plays helped the Oklahoma Sooners defeat Penn State to capture both the Orange Bowl and the program's sixth national championship. Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays, a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

On the Sooners' last possession, OU took the ball over on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. Two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

GAME SUMMARY

QB Cale Gundy brilliantly guided Oklahoma's offense and the Sooner defense slowed Doak Walker Award winner Bam Morris as OU claimed a 41-10 win. The Sooners scored the first two times they had the ball. Another Gundy TD pass boosted the lead to 21-3. Just over a minute later, the game MVP hit again and Oklahoma was cruising at halftime 28-3. Meanwhile, the nation's second-leading rusher was held to just 95 yards by the Sooner defense.

GAME SUMMARY

After completing its worst regular season in 30 years, and playing under a head coach who had resigned, Oklahoma ended its season with a dismal 31-6 loss. The Sooners started reserve QB Terence Brown, who had completed one of three passes on the season. Season starter Garrick McGee had contracted spinal meningitis and was unable to play. OU's defense surrendered 485 yards and four touchdowns through the air. BYU's John Walsh set Copper Bowl records for completions (31) and TD passes (4). Sooner linebacker Broderick Simpson was Defensive Player of the Game with 13 tackles, a sack and a broken up pass.

GAME SUMMARY

Top-ranked Oklahoma used a smothering defense to shut down the third-ranked Seminoles and Josh Heupel generated enough offense to lead OU to a perfect season. As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State's Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

Rose Bowl MVP Nate Hybl tossed two TD passes and Quentin Griffin rushed for 144 yards as the OU offense wore down the Cougars. Oklahoma became just the fourth school in college football history to win the four BCS games and the Cotton Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the naton's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

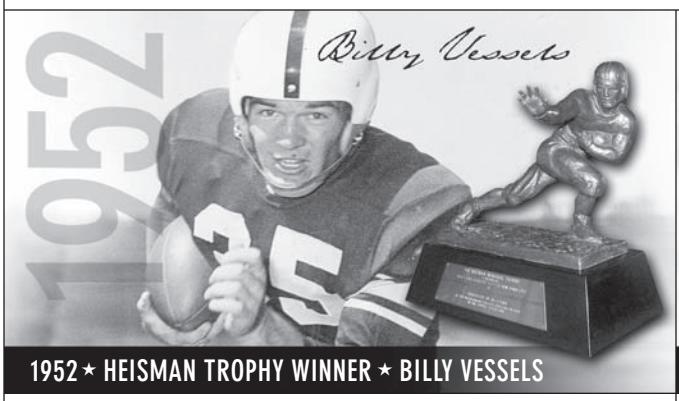
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1952 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his tenure.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give the Sooners their first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie with Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points a game. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

In 1953, Vessels turned pro for the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. Vessels then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ STEVE OWENS

Oklahoma's Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times in 1969 for 1,523 yards while scoring 23 touchdowns (another school record). Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense.

Owens had two 200-plus yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

The great career of Steve Owens left a mark on the OU record book. Owens holds five Sooner records. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 touchdowns during his career.

Owens holds the record for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). He finished his career with 4,041 yards on the ground, the third most in school history.

Detroit drafted Owens in the first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

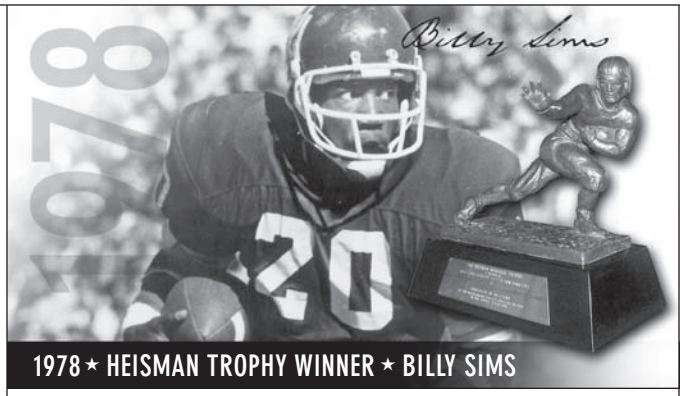
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1978 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries. Sims led the nation in rushing, averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in four different games (a school best) during the 1978 season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska game. Sims ran for 153 yards, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State, 62-7, and then was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. OU edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims is second in the OU record books for rushing yards in a season (1,896), most 200-yard games in a season (4) and a career (7). He finished his career with 4,118 yards and stands first on the all-time rushing list.

2003 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack. At a school where the points have flowed like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one), so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ VINCE CARTER ★ C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the presitgious Walter Camp All-America team.

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons. He earned first team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White -- both Heisman Trophy finalists -- as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

As a junior in 2003, Carter finished with 118 knockdowns and one sack allowed. He did not start the first game of the season due to an injury, but then started the last 13.

As a sophomore in 2002, Carter helped open holes for OU's first 1,000-yard rusher (Quentin Griffin) since Bob Stoops became the head coach. As a freshman in 2001, Carter started the last nine regular season games and the Cotton Bowl at center. He was named to The Sporting News All-America second team.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DAN CODY ★ DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort. At Texas A&M, he blacked out while exhorting teammates, then returned to the game.

Cody also led the team in sacks in 2003 with 10 including three in Oklahoma's 52-9 rout of in-state rival Oklahoma State. The Ada, Okla., native led the team in tackles for loss with 17 (-93 yards) and was No. 3 on the team in quarterback hurries with 17. He earned second team Academic All-Big 12.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ADRIAN PETERSON ★ RB

The best season ever by a freshman? The argument could be made. Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

On the awards circuit, Peterson had the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson's durability was surprising for a freshman. He led the nation with 339 rushing attempts and went over 100 yards in 11 of 13 games, including his debut. A thundering power back, he also had eight bursts of 35 yards or longer and 44 of 10 or more.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JAMMAL BROWN ★ OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints. He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season. The Sooners posted their highest scoring total ever with 601 points. By allowing just one sack, Brown also proved a key protector for Heisman winner Jason White.

As a junior in 2003, Brown had the highest season grade among Oklahoma's offensive linemen and finished with a team-high 127 knockdown blocks and just one sack allowed. Brown's athleticism and speed for a 313-pounder were on display in OU's win over UCLA when he ran down Bruin linebacker Spencer Havner to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the end of a 72-yard interception return.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ MARK CLAYTON ★ WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior season, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved runnin`g game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named the the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at OSU. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch (YAC). He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ANTONIO PERKINS ★ RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DERRICK STRAIT ★ CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in Oklahoma's 2000 National Championship season.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JASON WHITE ★ QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TOMMIE HARRIS ★ DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed all by a groin pull suffered in August, Harris still faced regular double teams.

He was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TEDDY LEHMAN ★ LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention ... and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ BRANDON EVERAGE ★ FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-highest on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JEFF FERGUSON ★ P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROY WILLIAMS ★ SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2001 & 2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROCKY CALMUS ★ LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JOSH HEUPEL ★ QB

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma 's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the most explosive in the country.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ J.T. THATCHER ★ FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average. A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State. Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

What is a Sooner?

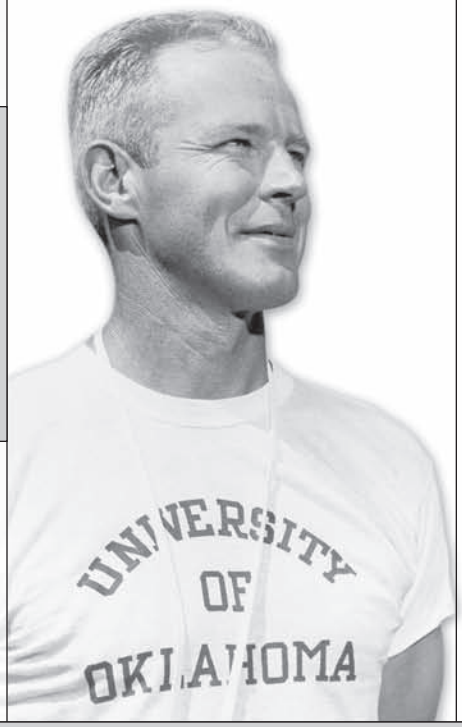
Sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as linked to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners.

Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim to a new life. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. Settlers who went too early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived their name from a pep club called 'The Sooner Rooters.' The success of University of Oklahoma athletic teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

Crimson & Cream

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet, was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms, and all public places around campus.



BUD WILKINSON

Sooner Schooner

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

Boomer Sooner!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

Oklahoma!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

The OU Chant

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant -- a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A
Our chant rolls on and on!
Thousands strong
Join heart and song
In alma mater's praise
Of campus beautiful by day and night
Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White
'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!

PRENTICE GAUTT ACADEMICS CENTER

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features seven learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses Academic Counseling Offices, two Computer Centers, Learning and Skill Development Centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages, career, and communication, mentoring office and study areas.

ACADEMIC ADVISING
Academic Advising Services, considered a campus-advising unit, are conveniently located within the center. The athletics department employs five professional full-time counselors who are here to help student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize their services. They will assist student-athletes with planning their class schedule and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they can help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

CAREER CENTER
Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan where they gather information to assist in making a decision about a career. Additionally, they may obtain information on the suitable career list; explore classes and publications in the field as well as obtain experience; and gain knowledge and skills necessary for résumé writing, job-related letter writing, and interviewing techniques.

KERR FOUNDATION COMPUTER CENTER
In the 21st century, computers have become an integral part of the learning experience. Students need access to computers and their resources almost daily. The Athletics Department provides each student with the equipment and support necessary to succeed.

There are currently two computer centers within the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. These centers have more than 200 computers, and are available exclusively to OU's student-athletes. This ensures that they will never go without computer access.

Laptop computers are checked out to student-athletes when the Computer Centers are unavailable. The laptop program is very important in helping OU's student-athletes stay on top of their schoolwork when traveling.

Group training is available for all new student-athletes during the first week of supervised study. This helps familiarize each student-athlete with the department's resources and procedures. Individual training sessions are available to each student upon request and lab technicians are always on hand to help.

The Athletic Computer Centers have been a model for other universities around the country. Upgrades are scheduled annually for both centers along with a face lift for the entire facility. A deep commitment from the Athletics Department ensures that the excellence in the Computer Centers will continue for a long time.

COMMUNICATIONS CENTER
A new addition to the academic center focuses on developing communication and public speaking skills for student-athletes. This state of the art center, coordinated by a broadcast professional, builds strong media relations skills through the use of video equipment.

KERR FOUNDATION FOREIGN LANGUAGE CENTER
To assist student-athletes in speaking, listening, reading and writing in other languages, the Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment that provides instruction in all foreign languages and in English as a second language. On an individual basis, student-athletes have the option of working with computers, audio-visual equipment and tutors in order to enhance student-athletes' language experience.

Computer Language Software Programs - give student-athletes interactive, individually-paced language drills to strengthen their skills.

Audio Listening Work Stations – allows student-athletes to listen to various language audio tapes and assigned materials.

Foreign Language TV/Video Viewing – provides the opportunity to hear native speakers in conversation as well as providing access to cultural information. There is a TV/VCR combination unit for showing foreign videos and cable connections to allow viewing of foreign language television programs.

Word Processing Software – allows student-athletes to complete foreign language writing assignments. After completion, student-athletes are able to print their assignments using the laser printer.

Tutoring – offered by the Language Center consultants, knowledgeable of the languages taught at OU, provide individual or group instruction.

MATH CENTER
If performing math functions is a problem, the solution is the Math Center. As a supplement to class instruction, the Math Center provides all levels of math computations, concepts and problems to help student-athletes review course material and offers personal and group tutoring sessions.

STUDY SKILLS CENTER
If student-athletes have trouble with assigned textbook readings or studying, the Reading and Study Skills Center can help. It provides student-athletes with reading and studying techniques and how to make direct applications to current resources.

THOMPSON WRITING CENTER
Because learning and writing are essential life-long skills which can always be strengthened, the Writing and Study Skills Center offers personalized instruction to student-athletes who seek assistance in refreshing, reviewing, or improving these skills.

The professional consultants of the center help student-athletes with a variety of academic tasks, from learning strategy instruction to any stage of the writing process including preparing for an essay exam and the formal research paper.

The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DAVID & MOLLY SHI BOREN

David L. Boren

13th President, The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were: the Oklahoma Summer Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools.

As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, and more competitive bidding on state government contracts.

During his time in the U.S. Senate -- from 1979 to 1994 -- Boren was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress. For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 9l percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, a new International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

Over $700 million in facilities construction has been initiated during his tenure. During his first decade over $1 billion in private contributions were given to the university and the university contributor base was increased from 17,000 donors to almost 100,000.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctor degree from the OU College of Law. Mrs. Boren is actively involved in university life and has led the landscaping effort on all three OU campuses. Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren and Dan Boren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Joe Castiglione

Director of Athletics, The University of Oklahoma

In seven years, Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession could match. While Castiglione would quickly point out that the credit belongs to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff and the university administration, the donors and the fans, someone had to make the first step, to take the lead. Under the heading of "Inspiring Champions Today … Preparing leaders for tomorrow" Castiglione has authored one of the most successful athletics eras ever witnessed at OU and an expansion of facilities that is unmatched in Sooner history.

His peers have been quick and frequent in recognizing his success at OU. In October 2004, he was named Athletics Director of the Year by the Bobby Dodd Foundation. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. In 2000, he was named the Central Region AD of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated five national championships, record numbers of graduating student-athletes, dramatically increased donor giving, huge increases in ticket sales for all sports, major facility improvements and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Other competitive highlights of Castiglione's tenure include …
- Five straight years among the top 25 in the standings for the Director's Cup which measures overall athletics success.
- Twenty OU teams ranked among the top 10 in season-ending polls.
- A school-record and Big 12 best graduation rate of 74% in 2003.
- Three appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and the college football national championship in 2000.
- Appearances by the men's and women's basketball team in their respective Final Fours in 2002.
- A Division I record of 74 combined victories between the football team and both basketball squads in the 2001-02 school year.
- An average of more than 17 OU teams per year represented in postseason play during his tenure.

Credited with energizing OU's fund-raising efforts, Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with at more than $125 million. The largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history, Great Expectations included projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes.

Castiglione has cultivated several million dollar gifts, the largest capital gifts in history for athletics at OU and some of the largest ever for the university as a whole. He has driven dramatic facilities projects, including a $70 million project at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Others include $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center, The Headington Family Tennis Complex, John Jacobs Field and the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country. World also included a redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; the Sooner Soccer Complex and John Crain Field; as well as additional renovations to L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center. His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of nine head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $3 million in annual revenue for the athletics department.

Castiglione was hired on April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 18-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, after rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, devising a master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and is a member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He also served a four-year term on the NCAA's Baseball Committee.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione was born Oct. 8, 1957. He is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr., born on December 20, 1996, and Jonathan Edmund, born on March 21, 2000.

OU Athletics Department Mission Statement
The mission of the University of Oklahoma Athletics Department is to inspire champions today and prepare leaders for tomorrow by providing an excellent environment to enable student-athletes to achieve their highest academic, athletic and personal aspirations.

Core Values
- Integrity
- Passion for Excellence
- Commitment
- Respect & Responsibility for Self & Others
- Appreciation for and Encouragement of Gender & Cultural Diversity

Philosophy
The University of Oklahoma Athletics Department promotes excellence in athletics without compromising excellence in academics or integrity in its commitment to rules or conduct. Student-athletes are encouraged by the coaching and administrative staff to maintain a balance between athletics, academics, and the social aspects of college.

It is believed that athletic participation gives an added dimension to the student's overall college experience and provides an opportunity for social, moral, emotional, and cultural growth and development.

The athletic programs strive to create traits that once acquired will carry over and benefit student-athletes in their personal and professional endeavors. The University of Oklahoma maintains a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate sports.

The Athletics Department continues to uphold this tradition by striving to make each athletic team and individual of championship caliber. Its staff members work to instill in student-athletes an appreciation for hard work, perseverance, and pride in accomplishment. It is believed these attributes will be utilized throughout the student-athlete's life.

OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes. The most major of those was a $65 million venture that added 8,000 seats, including 27 suites, on the east side. Work was completed in the summer of 2003.

At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state of the art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

An additional 27 suites in the new east upper deck opened in time for the 2004 season bringing the total number of suites to 63.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20,1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 National Championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 season, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility. In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 prior to the 1998 season to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995 and was completed that year. The suites are leased annually. Eight of the suites seat 12 and the President's suite seats 24.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

The Barry Switzer Center, named after the former OU head football coach, opened in April 1999. The complex includes a sports medicine facility with the latest equipment and technology to better accommodate OU's student-athletes; the Robin Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Facility, which can accommodate more than 400 athletes; new locker rooms; new coaches offices; the Anderson All-American Plaza and the OU Touchdown Club Legends Lobby. The Legends Lobby, which underwent a $1 million upgrade in the summer of 2004, features some of OU's finest moments, most legendary figures and rare memorabilia.
